That involvement was finalized on January 24, 1994, when he acquired the remaining 85% of the Dolphins and the additional 50% of the stadium, leaving him with 100% ownership of both entities.

Mr. Huizenga is Chairman of AutoNation, Inc., the nation's largest automotive retailer. He is also Chairman of the Board of Republic Services, a non-hazardous solid waste collection company, Extended Stay America and Boca Resorts, Inc., a leisure-time, recreation, resort and entertainment company.

He is also Chairman of Huizenga Holdings, Inc., and is the sole or majority owner of several service businesses. He has numerous real estate interests throughout Florida that include office buildings, warehouses, shopping centers and underdeveloped properties as well as the Marriott Harbor Beach Resort Hotel. Mr. Huizenga was responsible for bringing major league baseball to South Florida in 1993, serving as chairman of the Florida Marlins through 1998, and under his direction the Marlins won the World Series in 1997. He also brought the National Hockey League to South Florida, serving as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Florida Panthers for the first eight years (1993-2001) of that team's existence, including the 1995-96 season when they reached the Stanley Cup finals.

Previously, Mr. Huizenga was Vice Chairman of the Board of Viacom, Inc. and Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Entertainment Corporation.

In January, 1971, Mr. Huizenga co-founded Waste Management, Inc. (now WMX Technologies, Inc.) which today is the world's largest waste collection and disposal company. He served as President, Chief Operating Officer, Vice Chairman, and Director. Mr. Huizenga resigned from the company in May, 1984 to pursue other business interests.

Mr. Huizenga then directed Blockbuster Entertainment Corporation into a position of world leadership in the video rental industry, serving communities in all 50 states and 26 countries. In 1994, Blockbuster Entertainment Corporation was sold to Viacom for $8.5 billion.

Business and academic groups have honored Mr. Huizenga seven times as "Entrepreneur of the Year," including the 1995 award given by Success Magazine. He is a five-time recipient of Financial World Magazine's "CEO of the Year" and was named the 1993 "Business Leader of the Year" by Georgetown University's Business School.

Among his other awards are the Horatio Alger Award in 1992, and the Gordon Grand Fellow Award, the highest non-academic award that Yale University bestows. Mr. Huizenga also received the Fort Lauderdale Sun-Sentinel's 1989 Excalibur Award for Business leadership. He was inducted into the Video Hall of Fame in 1991 and named Time-Billboard Magazine's "Man of the Year" in 1990 for his contributions to the growth and development of the video retail industry. In 1996, he was inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame and the Greater Miami Sports Hall of Champions.

Mr. Huizenga's community involvement honors include the 1994 "Humanitarian of the Year" by the National Conference of Christians and Jews. Lauderdale was recognized when he was awarded the Private Sector Award in 1999 by the National Alliance to End Homelessness. Mr. Huizenga sits as a board member of many civic organizations, including the Florida Council of 100, the Broward Economic Development Board, the Salvation Army of Broward County, the Boys and Girls Club of Broward County, and is the immediate past Chairman of the Florida Council on Economic Education.

DAVE WANNSTEDT

Head Coach

College: Pittsburgh

NFL: 13th Season

Dolphins: Second Season

Born: May 21, 1952

Dave Wannstedt was named Head Coach of the Miami Dolphins on January 16, 2000. He became the fourth head coach in club history, joining Jimmy Johnson (1996-99), Don Shula (1970-95), and George Wilson (1966-69). Wannstedt originally signed a three-year contract and was signed to a one-year contract extension through the 2003 season on February 2, 2001.

Wannstedt is in his 26th season of coaching at major colleges and in the NFL. He has been on 17 winning teams, ten bowl teams, five NFL playoff teams and one Super Bowl champion. As a college assistant, Wannstedt's teams had a 106-45-4 record, including a 6-4 mark in bowl games. Combined with a 7-4 mark in NFL playoff games, his overall postseason record is 13-8.

In 2000, his first season as the Dolphins' head coach, Wannstedt led the team to an 11-5 record and the AFC East championship, his first division title, and the first by the Dolphins since 1994. Wannstedt's 11 wins were the most he recorded in his seven years as a head coach, and the Dolphins' 11-5 record was the team's best mark since 1992. In addition, having gone 9-7 in 1999, the two-game improvement under Wannstedt in 2000 was Miami's largest since the team went 11-5 in 1992 after going 8-8 the previous year. As a measure of the team's success in 2000, the Dolphins sent seven players to the Pro Bowl, the most since 1984, when the team advanced to the Super Bowl.

Wannstedt's reputation as an outstanding defensive coach was underlined in 2000 as the Dolphins finished third in the NFL in defensive points allowed, giving up a total of 226 points, the fewest ever allowed by a Dolphins team in a 16-game season. Under Wannstedt, the Dolphins also recorded an NFL high 28 interceptions, and their plus-15 takeaway/giveaway ratio was the best by a Dolphins team since 1983. Overall, it was the fourth best mark in franchise history.

Following the regular season, Wannstedt led the Dolphins to the AFC Divisional Round of the playoffs, defeating the Indianapolis Colts, 23-17, in overtime in a memorable first round game. His playoff appearance was his second trip to the post-season as an NFL head coach, and in both instances he won a playoff game while advancing to the Divisional Round. For his efforts in 2000, Wannstedt won a "Terry" Award as NFL Coach of the Year by FOX analyst Terry Bradshaw and received consideration for NFL Coach of the Year honors. In addition, he received the Florida Sports Award as the Pro Coach of the Year in the state of Florida for 2000.

Prior to being named Miami's head coach in 2000, Wannstedt served as the Dolphins' Assistant Head Coach under Johnson in 1999. In that capacity, he had a broad range of coaching responsibilities working with the team's offensive, defensive, and special teams staffs, as the Dolphins qualified for the postseason and won their first road playoff game since 1972 while advancing to the AFC Divisional Round game. In addition to his coaching duties, Wannstedt also was involved in the team's college and pro personnel evaluation process as well.

His current tenure with the Dolphins actually is Wannstedt's second tour of duty with the team. Prior to the start of the 1989 season, he served as Miami's linebackers coach for seven weeks under Shula before being named by Johnson as defensive coordinator with the Dallas Cowboys that February.

Before joining the Dolphins in 1999, Wannstedt served the previous six years (1993-98) as Head Coach of the Chicago Bears. In those six seasons in Chicago, Wannstedt posted 41 wins, the third most victories by a coach in the club's storied 80-year history. His teams posted back-to-back winning seasons in 1994 and 1995, but working with three personnel directors in six years resulted in major roster changes that ultimately affected the club's foundation that Wannstedt established.

In 1996, the Bears finished strongly, winning five of nine games after the bye week despite a rash of injuries that resulted in 19 different starters on offense and 18 on defense during the course of the season. In addition, they posted a 6-2 record at Soldier Field, recording their best home mark since 1991.

In 1995, the Bears again posted a strong finish en route to a 9-7 record, winning their final two games for the first time since 1986. Chicago's 4-4 mark in the NFC Central Division was their best mark since 1991. The club also led the NFL in fewest penalties for the second straight season. Just minutes after the Bears finished the year with a 20-14 win over Philadelphia, they were denied a playoff berth when the Atlanta Falcons upset the San Francisco 49ers to claim the final wild card spot when playoff tiebreakers separated the teams that finished 9-7.

In 1994, Wannstedt led the Bears back to the playoffs after a three-year hiatus. The team's 9-7 regular season mark earned a wild card berth which led to a first round upset of NFC Central champion Minnesota at the Metrodome, the first road playoff win by Chicago since 1984. Wannstedt was named NFC Coach of the Year by Football News, UPI and Kansas City's 101 Club and was among the top three finishers for the NFL Coach of the Year by AP, Pro Football Writers, The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly and Football Digest.

The Bears were one of four NFC Central teams in the playoffs, a berth earned after a four-game winning streak at midseason moved the team from 4-4 to 8-4. The Bears posted a season-high 35 points in beating the Vikings in the Wild Card game before losing to the eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco the next week on the road in a Divisional Round contest. Six of Chicago's seven losses in 1994 were against playoff teams, and among the Bears' wins were triumphs over four-time defending AFC Champion Buffalo and at Miami.

In 1993, Wannstedt's first season in Chicago, the Bears finished with a 7-9 record highlighted by two impressive winning streaks. After an 0-2 start, the Bears won three straight games, including a 17-6 win against the then undefeated Philadelphia Eagles (4-0) at Veterans Stadium. A four-game winning streak, which included a NFL-first three road wins in 12 days, had Chicago in a first place tie in the NFC Central with four games remaining. The Bears were in the midst of the playoff chase until the 17th week of the season as the team improved two games from their 5-11 record in 1992, the season before Wannstedt arrived in Chicago. In just his first year as a head coach, Wannstedt was among the top vote getters for the NFL Coach of the Year Award.

Wannstedt's stint as defensive coordinator of the Dallas Cowboys (1989-92) under Jimmy Johnson marked his first coaching position in the NFL. In Dallas, he took over a defense that had ranked 20th in the league the year prior to his arrival. By 1990, his defense led the league against the pass and was 18th against the run, and he was named The National's NFL Assistant Coach of the Year. In 1991, the Cowboys improved to ninth against the run as they made the playoffs for the first time since 1985. Wannstedt's success made him a finalist for the Pittsburgh Steelers head coaching position following the 1991 season, prompting Johnson to give him the additional position of Assistant Head Coach in January, 1992.

In 1992, Wannstedt's defense was the youngest in the NFL yet ranked first in the league, allowing an average of just 245.8 yards per game, including just 77.8 yards rushing. The exclamation point to his tenure in Dallas came in Super Bowl XXVII when his defense forced nine turnovers as the Cowboys routed the Buffalo Bills 52-17. Overall, the Cowboys improved from a 1-15 team when Wannstedt became defensive coordinator in 1989 to a 16-3 World Championship club in his final season in Dallas.

Wannstedt began his coaching career in 1975 as defensive line coach at the University of Pittsburgh under his college coach, Johnny Majors. Jimmy Johnson joined the Panthers' staff in 1977, and in 1979 Wannstedt followed Johnson to Oklahoma State, where Johnson had taken the head coaching position. Wannstedt served as defensive line coach with the Cowboys from the 1979-80 seasons before being promoted to defensive coordinator in 1981, a spot he held for two years. He then served on Ted Tollner's staff at USC as defensive line coach for three seasons (1983-85) before re-joining Johnson as the defensive coordinator at the University of Miami. In his three seasons in that position (1986-88), Miami's defense held opponents to a 2.2-yard average per carry, yielded an average of 10.9 points per game and averaged 48 sacks a season. In 1987 the Hurricanes won the national championship, posting a perfect 12-0 record including an Orange Bowl win over Oklahoma. Overall, his defenses in Miami produced 11 players who were drafted by the NFL, including five in the first two rounds.

Wannstedt is a native of Pittsburgh, where he attended Baldwin High School. He then earned a bachelors degree in physical education and a masters in curricular supervision at the University of Pittsburgh, where he played offensive tackle (1970-73). He captained the team his senior year at Pitt, which featured freshmen Tony Dorsett and Matt Cavanaugh. He was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the 15th round of the 1974 draft but spent the season on Injured Reserve with a neck injury. The next year he began his coaching career when he joined Majors' staff at Pitt.

Born on May 21, 1952, he and his wife, Jan, reside in Davie, where they are both active in many local charitable, church, and community projects. They have two daughters, Keri (24) and Jami (20).

KEITH ARMSTRONG

Special Teams

College: Temple

NFL: Eighth Season

Dolphins: First Season

Born: December 15, 1963

Keith Armstrong is entering his first season as the Dolphins' special teams coach, having been named to the post on January 15, 2001 by Head Coach Dave Wannstedt.

Armstrong joins the Dolphins after serving the previous four seasons (1997-00) in the same role with the Chicago Bears. Last year, Chicago's special teams blocked a pair of opponent field goal attempts while also ranking fourth in the NFL in punt return defense, allowing an average of just 7.0-yards per return. In 1998 and 1999, the Bears' special teams unit ranked fourth overall in the NFL based on a formula consisting of numerous categories. In 1999, his group recovered six fumbles and blocked an NFL-high four field goals. In 1998, the Bears' special teams units led the league in points scored (26) and blocked kicks (four). In Armstrong's four seasons, the Bears ranked in the top ten in the NFL in punt return average, punt coverage and kickoff coverage twice each. In 1999, they led the league in kickoff coverage, having allowed an average of just 16.6 yards per return.

Armstrong first started in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons in 1994, where he served as a defensive assistant. He coached the Falcons' safeties in 1995 and the secondary in 1996 before moving on to Chicago.

A four-year letterman (1983-86) as a running back and defensive back at Temple University, Armstrong started his coaching tenure as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1987. He went to the University of Miami (Fla.) in 1988 where he worked with the defensive backs and special teams on a staff that was headed by former Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson and also included current Head Coach Dave Wannstedt and offensive line coach Tony Wise. Armstrong spent one year with the Hurricanes before joining the Akron staff as receivers coach in 1989. A one-year tenure there preceded his move to Oklahoma State, where he served three years (1990-92) as secondary coach under current Dolphins tight ends coach Pat Jones, then OSU's head coach. His final collegiate post came as linebackers and special teams coach at Notre Dame in 1993.

A native of Philadelphia, Pa., Armstrong attended Bishop Egan High School. He was born on December 15, 1963. He and his wife, Kathleen, have two daughters, Kaitlin and Kristin.

JIM BATES

Defensive Coordinator

College: Tennessee

NFL: 11th Season

Dolphins: Second Season

Born: May 31, 1946

Jim Bates is entering his second season as the Dolphins' defensive coordinator. He was named to the post by Head Coach Dave Wannstedt on January 24, 2000. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Bates spent the previous four years (1996-99) with the Dallas Cowboys, including each of the last two as that team's Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Line. He was the Cowboys' linebackers coach from 1996-97.

In Bates' first season as defensive coordinator, the Dolphins ranked fourth in the AFC and sixth in the NFL in overall defense, allowing an average of 289.8 yards per outing. They were third in the conference and fifth in the league in pass defense, permitting an average of 181.3 yards a contest. In addition, the Dolphins yielded an average of only 14.1 points per game, the third-best mark in the NFL. Their 226 total points allowed were the fewest points ever allowed by a Dolphins team in a 16-game season. Bates' unit also exhibited aggressiveness by forcing 41 turnovers, which ranked third in the AFC and fourth in the NFL. This included an NFL-high 28 interceptions. Following the 2000 season, five players (Trace Armstrong, Sam Madison, Brock Marion, Jason Taylor, Zach Thomas) from Bates' defense were selected to play on the AFC Pro Bowl squad.

Before joining Dallas in 1996, Bates spent one year as defensive coordinator with the Atlanta Falcons (1994) and one season (1995) as the secondary coach with the Cleveland Browns, his second stint with that team. He was Cleveland's linebackers coach in 1991 and their defensive ends coach from 1992-93.

Bates got his start in the pro coaching ranks as defensive coordinator with the San Antonio Gunslingers of the USFL in 1984. He was promoted to Head Coach for the 1985 season and served one year in that post. He was the defensive coordinator with the Arizona Outlaws of the USFL in 1986 before the league folded. He also was an assistant with the Detroit Drive of the Arena League in 1988. Following that, he was the linebackers coach at the University of Tennessee in 1989 and the defensive coordinator/secondary coach at the University of Florida in 1990.

Bates began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Tennessee in 1968. After a stint as Head Coach at Sevier County (Tenn.) High School, he coached the freshmen at the University of Southern Mississippi in 1972. He moved on to Villanova University for the next two years where he was the Wildcats' offensive line coach in 1973 and the linebackers coach the following season. A two-year stop (1975-76) as linebackers coach at Kansas State and a one-year tenure (1977) as secondary coach at West Virginia preceded Bates' appointment as secondary coach at Texas Tech in 1978. He added the title of defensive coordinator in 1980 and spent the next four years in that post for the Red Raiders.

Born May 31, 1946 in Oxford, Mich., Bates was a linebacker at the University of Tennessee from 1964-67. He and his wife, Beverly, reside in Dania Beach. Bates has two sons, James and Jeremy, one grandson and a granddaughter. James, a former linebacker at the University of Florida, was a defensive captain on the Gators' 1996 National Championship team.

NFL: Fifth Season

Dolphins: Fifth Season

Born: August 3, 1963

Doug Blevins enters his fifth season with the Dolphins after being named to his position in 1997. In his role, Blevins works with the Dolphins' placekickers.

During Blevins' four-year tenure with the team, kicker Olindo Mare has become one of the top kickers in the NFL. Last season, Mare shattered his own team record by converting 90.3 percent of his field goal attempts (28 of 31). Mare's career field goal accuracy rate of .836 now stands as the second-best in NFL history. In 1999, Mare set an NFL record by kicking 39 field goals and became just the second kicker in team history to be voted to the Pro Bowl and the first since Garo Yepremian in 1978.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Blevins served as kicking coordinator for the NFL Europe League from 1995-97 and in 1999. Blevins also did consulting work with the New York Jets in 1994 and the New England Patriots in 1996.

A 1988 graduate of East Tennessee State University, Blevins started his coaching career as a student assistant in 1982 while at the University of Tennessee. He worked with the kickers for the Volunteers for two seasons before being named kicking coach at Emory & Henry College in Emory, Virginia, in 1984. He joined the staff at East Tennessee State in 1986, and served as a consultant with the kickers there through 1987, while also continuing his undergraduate work. From 1988-92, Blevins coached high school football in Virginia before starting his own kicking consulting company in 1993. He still owns the Davie, Fla., based company.

In addition to his work with the Dolphins, Blevins also serves as the special teams coach with the Florida Bobcats of the Arena League.

A native of Abingdon, Virginia, Blevins has a son, Roman Douglas (3/4/98). Blevins was born August 3, 1963, in Abingdon, Va.

CLARENCE BROOKS

Defensive Line

College: Massachusetts

NFL: Ninth Season

Dolphins: Second Season

Born: May 20, 1951

Clarence Brooks is entering his second season as the Dolphins' defensive line coach. He was named to the position by Head Coach Dave Wannstedt on January 24, 2000. Brooks joined the Dolphins after spending the 1999 season in the same post with the Cleveland Browns.

This marks Brooks' second coaching stop with Wannstedt, having worked for him from 1993-98 as defensive line coach with the Chicago Bears.

Of the Dolphins' 48 sacks last year, defensive linemen accounted for 42.5 of them. Defensive ends Trace Armstrong and Jason Taylor combined for 31 sacks, ranking them as the most productive sack tandem in Dolphins history and the top duo in the NFL in 2000. Armstrong's 16.5 sacks led the AFC and were tied for second in the NFL, while Taylor's total of 14.5 was second in the conference and fifth in the league. Both were named as starters to the AFC Pro Bowl squad, the first time that teammates have been chosen to start at defensive end in the Pro Bowl since the 1992 season (1993 Pro Bowl) when Philadelphia's Reggie White and Clyde Simmons were picked.

Prior to joining the Bears in 1993, Brooks spent the previous three seasons (1990-92) as the defensive line coach at the University of Arizona. That followed a nine-year stay (1981-89) at Syracuse University. He spent his first six years there tutoring the outside linebackers for the Orangemen, and his final three seasons as defensive line coach. His initial full-time coaching post came in 1976, overseeing the defensive ends at the University of Massachusetts, a position in which he served four seasons. In addition, during the summer of 1989, Brooks worked in the Dallas Cowboys' training camp as part of the team's minority coaching fellowship program.

Born May 20, 1951, Brooks was an offensive guard at the University of Massachusetts from 1970-72, and was the team captain his final season. He and his wife, Justa, have a son, Jason, and a daughter, Adrienne.

Joel Collier enters his eighth season with the Dolphins and his fourth as running backs coach, having been named to the position on February 11, 1998.

Last season, he helped resurrect the career of Lamar Smith, who finished tenth in the AFC with 1,139 yards rushing, the second-best single season figure ever by a Dolphin.

Over Collier's first two years as running backs coach, he tutored three different players who finished among the top five rookie rushers in the NFL in their respective rookie seasons.

As a defensive assistant with the Dolphins from 1994-97, Collier assisted in coaching the team's linebackers and in the overall football operation. In 1997, Collier worked extensively with rookie linebacker Derrick Rodgers, a third-round draft choice who garnered several all-rookie accolades, including Sports Illustrated's Defensive Rookie of the Year.

Collier joined the Dolphins after having worked three seasons (1991-93) in various capacities with the New England Patriots. He served in the pro scouting department in 1993 and worked as assistant running backs and wide receivers coach from 1991-92.

Collier joined the Patriots after serving as an offensive assistant with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1990. Prior to his experience with the Bucs, Collier worked two years with the quarterbacks and running backs as a graduate assistant at Syracuse University.

A three-year starter at inside linebacker at Northern Colorado, Collier was a three-time academic All-North Central Conference performer. He received his bachelor's degree in social science education.

In the 35-year history of the franchise, the Dolphins have had 19 dual 100-yard receiving games, 20 including playoffs. The most frequent duo has been Mark Clayton and Mark Duper, who combined for four dual 100-yard receiving games. Overall, Clayton was part of eight such games while Duper was in seven. The most recent game in which the Dolphins had two receivers surpass the 100-yard mark occurred on December 5, 1999 when Tony Martin accumulated 109 yards and a touchdown on six receptions and Oronde Gadsden totaled 103 yards and a score on six catches against the Colts at Pro Player Stadium. It marked the second time in 1999 that this tandem accounted for 100-yard receiving performances in the same game. The first occurred in the initial meeting with the Colts, on October 10 at the RCA Dome.

ROBERT FORD

Wide Receivers

College: Houston

NFL: 11th Season

Dolphins: Fourth Season

Born: June 21, 1951

Robert Ford enters his 11th season as an NFL assistant and his fourth with the Dolphins. He was named the team's wide receivers coach in 1998.

In two of Ford's three seasons tutoring the team's receiving corps, the Dolphins have had three receivers record more than 40 receptions. In Ford's first season in Miami, wide receiver O.J. McDuffie led the NFL with a team-record 90 receptions. McDuffie became the first Dolphin ever to lead the league in receiving. In addition, Ford has been instrumental in the development of Oronde Gadsden, who joined the Dolphins in 1998 from the Arena League and has totaled 152 receptions in his first three NFL seasons, including a team-high 56 in 2000. Gadsden's 19 touchdown receptions over the last three years are the fourth-most by a Dolphin in his first three years with the club. His 2,302 receiving yards are the fifth-highest figure ever by a Dolphin in his first three years with the team.

Ford first broke into the NFL as an assistant with the Dallas Cowboys in 1991. During his seven seasons tutoring the club's tight ends, Jay Novacek was voted to the Pro Bowl five times (1991-95). From 1991-95, Novacek recorded 280 receptions, more than any other NFL tight end during this five-year span. Before joining Dallas on a full-time basis, Ford spent the summer of 1990 with the Cowboys as part of the club's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Ford spent 16 seasons as an assistant at both the high school and collegiate levels. He began his coaching career in 1973 at Saginaw (Michigan) High School. He embarked on his collegiate tenure the following year, tutoring the wide receivers at Western Illinois where he spent 1974-76. That was followed by stops at New Mexico (1977-79), Oregon State (1980-81) and Mississippi State (1982-83). His first pro job came as receivers coach with the Houston Gamblers of the USFL in 1985. Ford returned to the collegiate ranks where he held posts at Kansas (1986), Texas Tech (1987-88) and Texas A&M (1989-90) preceding his NFL stint.

A native of Belton, Texas, Ford earned his degree in education from the University of Houston and his master's in athletic administration from Western Illinois. At Houston, where he played wide receiver from 1970-72, Ford led the Cougars in receiving, punt returns and kickoff returns in his final season, when he earned third-team All-America accolades. He is the only player in NCAA history to account for two 99-yard receptions. Born June 21, 1951 in Belton, Ford and his wife, Janice, have two sons, Bobby and Jason. The family resides in Pembroke Pines.

CHAN GAILEY

Offensive Coordinator

College: Florida
NFL: 14th Season
Dolphins: Second Season
Born: January 5, 1952

Chan Gailey is entering his second season as the Dolphins' offensive coordinator, having been named to the post on February 1, 2000 by Head Coach Dave Wannstedt. Gailey joined the Dolphins after spending the previous two years (1998-99) as the Head Coach of the Dallas Cowboys. Under Gailey, the Cowboys compiled a composite regular season record of 18-14 in his two seasons, qualified for the playoffs both years, and captured the NFC Eastern Division title in 1998. In addition, the Cowboys finished in the top five in the NFL in both fewest turnovers and fewest interceptions in each of Gailey's two seasons as Head Coach, including a number one ranking in both categories in 1998.

In Gailey's first season with the Dolphins, he helped guide a running game which amassed 1,894 yards, the most by a Dolphins team since 1984. Lamar Smith finished tenth in the AFC with 1,139 yards rushing, the second-highest single-season total by a Dolphin, marking just the seventh time (fifth player) that a Dolphin has reached the 1,000-yard rushing plateau. In the seven seasons that Gailey has been either a coordinator or head coach in the NFL, he has had a player attain the 1,000-yard rushing mark each time.

Before joining the Cowboys in 1998, Gailey spent the previous four seasons (1994-97) with the Pittsburgh Steelers, including each of the last two as offensive coordinator. His first two years there were spent tutoring the club's wide receivers. In Gailey's four seasons with the Steelers, the team won the AFC Central Division crown each time, appeared in the AFC Championship Game on three occasions and made one trip to the Super Bowl. Pittsburgh finished second in the NFL in rushing offense in 1996, averaging 143.7 yards per game. In Gailey's final season with the Steelers, he presided over the league's top-ranked rushing team, one that amassed an average of 154.9 yards per contest.

The NFL team with which Gailey has coached now has reached postseason play each of the last seven years and ten of his 13 seasons overall.

Gailey got his start in the NFL coaching ranks as an assistant with the Denver Broncos in 1985. He served as a defensive assistant and special teams coach in his first season there before moving to the offensive side in 1986. He served two years (1986-87) as the Broncos' special teams and tight ends coach prior to taking over the task as quarterbacks coach in 1988. He was promoted to offensive coordinator/receivers coach in 1989, and served two years in that position. During Gailey's six-year stay in Denver, the team finished first or second in the AFC West on five occasions and made three Super Bowl appearances. Following his tenure in Denver, Gailey was named Head Coach with the Birmingham Fire of the World League in 1991, and in his two seasons there, the Fire qualified for the playoffs both times. A stop as Head Coach at Samford University in 1993 preceded his stint with the Steelers.

Gailey began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Florida in 1974, where he spent the next two years. From there, he moved on to his first full-time position, as secondary coach at Troy (Ala.) State, where he served from 1976-78. That was followed by a four-year stint (1979-82) at the Air Force Academy, the final two as defensive coordinator. He returned to Troy State in 1983 and spent the next two seasons there as the school's Head Coach. He led the team to a Division II national championship in 1984.

Born January 5, 1952 in Gainesville, Ga., Gailey was a three-year letterman (1971-73) as a quarterback at the University of Florida. He graduated from Florida in 1974 with a degree in physical education. Gailey and his wife, Laurie, have two sons, Tate (26) and Andrew (22).

Tight Ends

College: Arkansas

NFL: Seventh Season

Dolphins: Sixth Season

Born: November 4, 1947

Pat Jones begins his sixth season as the Dolphins' tight ends coach after being named to the position in 1996. It is Jones' seventh year in the NFL after spending 1995 with the Chicago Bears as a special assistant with the offensive line. Prior to joining the Bears, he spent 11 seasons as head coach at Oklahoma State University (1984-94) and 22 years at the collegiate level. Overall, he has been in the profession for 33 years.

Jones led Oklahoma State to a 62-60-3 record during his tenure in Stillwater and was at the helm during the school's only 10-win seasons (1984, 1987 and 1988) in its football history. He led the Cowboys to four bowl games (1984 and 1985 Gator Bowl, 1987 Sun Bowl and 1988 Holiday Bowl) with three victories during his 11 seasons. Jones finished as the school's all-time winningest coach and 11th-most successful coach all-time in Big Eight history. He was twice named Big Eight Coach of the Year (1984 and 1992) and was National Coach of the Year by Football Yearbook in 1984.

Jones coached nine All-Americans at OSU, including Thurman Thomas, Hart Lee Dykes, Leslie O'Neal, and Barry Sanders. Dykes ended his career as the all-time leading receiver in Big Eight history, O'Neal was a Lombardi Award finalist in 1985, and Sanders won the Heisman Trophy in 1988.

Jones became Oklahoma State's head football coach when Jimmy Johnson left to become head coach at the University of Miami in 1984 and he was promoted from assistant head coach/defensive coordinator. Jones' inaugural season at OSU saw the Cowboys achieve its highest national ranking (second in the UPI poll and third in the AP ratings) prior to a regular-season finale against Oklahoma for the Big Eight title. The Cowboys finished the season with ten wins and a final ranking of fifth in UPI and sixth in AP. Jones' ten wins was just the third time in conference history that a rookie head coach had achieved that milestone, joining Oklahoma's Barry Switzer and Colorado's Chuck Fairbanks. In addition, his Cowboys teams finished three other seasons ranked in the Top 20 with finishes of 17th in 1985, 11th in 1987 and 11th in 1988. During his tenure at OSU, Jones also coached in the 1986 Japan Bowl, the 1988 Hula Bowl, and the 1992 Blue-Gray Game.

Jones began his coaching career in the Little Rock (Ark.) public schools in 1969 before moving on to the collegiate level as assistant defensive line coach at Arkansas under then-defensive coordinator Jimmy Johnson (1974-75). He also made stops as defensive ends coach at Southern Methodist (1976-77), defensive ends coach at Pittsburgh with Johnson in 1978, and defensive ends coach/defensive coordinator at Oklahoma State (1979-83), before taking the head coaching position at OSU in 1984.

Raised in Little Rock, Ark., Jones played collegiately at Arkansas Tech in 1965 before transferring to Arkansas for 1966-67 as a walk-on linebacker and nose guard.

MEL PHILLIPS

Secondary

College: North Carolina A&T
NFL: 22nd Season
Dolphins: 17th Season
Born: January 6, 1942

Mel Phillips enters his 17th season as a coach for the Dolphins, teaming with Bill Lewis in coaching the secondary for the sixth consecutive year. During his first 12 years with the club, Phillips was defensive backs coach.

Under Phillips, Dolphins defensive backs have had a knack for coming up with the big play, having returned nine interceptions or fumbles for touchdowns over the last six years. In Phillips' 16 previous seasons, the team's defensive backs have brought back a total of 20 interceptions or fumbles for touchdowns. In 1998, Miami registered an NFL-high 29 interceptions, the second-most in team history, trailing only the 32 from 1978. Last season, Phillips' unit again led the league in interceptions, snaring 28 enemy passes, including an AFC-high seven by strong safety Brian Walker. Cornerback Sam Madison and free safety Brock Marion were voted to the AFC Pro Bowl squad, the first time since 1974 that two Dolphins defensive backs were chosen for the Pro Bowl in the same season. All four starters in Miami's secondary tallied at least five interceptions in 2000, as the Dolphins became the first NFL team since the 1981 Tampa Bay Buccaneers to have at least four players record five or more interceptions in the same season. Phillips has been instrumental in the development of Madison, who now has been voted to the Pro Bowl each of the last two years, the only cornerback in team history to earn that honor. In addition, Madison has recorded 21 interceptions over the last four years, tied for the second-most in the NFL during this four-year stretch.

Before coming to Miami in 1985, the 59-year-old Phillips previously held the same position for five seasons with the Detroit Lions (1980-84).

Phillips, a native of Shelby, N.C., played 12 seasons for the San Francisco 49ers (1966-77), including eight as a starter at strong safety. A tenacious hitter during his playing days, his career statistics include ten interceptions for 106 return yards (including a 35-yard TD in 1970). Phillips twice won the 49ers' Len Eshmont Award, symbolic of the team's most valuable player. Following his retirement from the 49ers, Phillips worked for the city of San Francisco's juvenile probation department until joining the Lions.

Collegiate, Phillips attended North Carolina A&T, where he played both ways as a defensive back and a running back. As a senior, he rushed for 648 yards and 11 touchdowns on 100 carries, and also caught 19 passes for 277 yards and four scores. That season (1965), A&T won the conference championship and Phillips intercepted two passes and rushed for two TDs in the title game. Phillips also lettered for the swimming and track teams at A&T.

Mel and his wife, Patricia, have two daughters, Paulette (6/4/67) and Yvette (5/9/73) and live in Miami Lakes. He was born on January 6, 1942, in Shelby, N.C.

Along with Troy Maurer and Ben Westby, O'Neill is responsible for the day-to-day treatment of injured Dolphins players in coordination with the club's medical staff. He also has other specific administrative duties as assigned by Dolphins Head Coach Dave Wannstedt.

With the Cowboys, O'Neill was part of three Super Bowl championship teams. He also was a member of a National Championship club during his four years (1985-88) as Head Athletic Trainer at the University of Miami (Fla.).

A graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, O'Neill earned his master's degree in physical education from the University of Arizona while serving as athletic trainer for Catalina High School in Tucson, Ariz. O'Neill spent three years as the head athletic trainer at Oregon State, and one year at the University of Central Florida before joining the University of Miami.

A native of Pittsburgh, O'Neill and his wife, Anne, have two daughters, McKenzie and Kaitlyn, and live in Fort Lauderdale.

DOLPHINS ON THE INTERNET

All the information you need to read and hear about the Miami Dolphins in 2001 can be obtained on the Dolphins web site, located at <http://www.miamidolphins.com>. Miami's official home page contains useful information that is updated on a daily basis throughout the year. Releases, rosters, statistics, depth charts and updated biographies are just a few of the things that are featured. In addition, the site is updated daily with sound bites from Head Coach Dave Wannstedt and Dolphin players. The quality of sound will enable not only fans to hear what the Dolphins are saying, but also can be used by the media. Pre-game and post-game analysis begins in preseason, and on gamedays, the site contains an analysis of the action on the field as it is happening, as well as photos throughout the course of the contest. Fans can submit questions and comments about the team daily. Live chats with Dolphin players, coaches and front office staff will be conducted twice a month. Other information on the Dolphins, in addition to the latest on the National Football League and the other 30 teams, can be accessed through the NFL's home page on <http://www.nfl.com>.

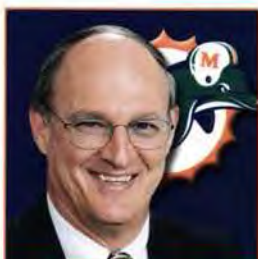

DOLPHIN FACT

In the 1991 Pro Bowl, wide receiver Mark Clayton caught a nine-yard touchdown pass from Jim Kelly. He joined tight end Ferrell Edmunds, who caught a five-yard scoring toss from Dave Krieg (Seattle) in the '89 game, and Hall of Fame wide receiver Paul Warfield, who caught a 32-yard TD pass from Dolphins teammate Bob Griese in the '74 contest, as the only Dolphin players to have scored a touchdown in the all-star game.

MIAMI DOLPHINS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Miami Dolphins take great pride in playing an active role in the South Florida community. By lending support to both civic and community based charitable causes, the Dolphins are able to make an impact in the lives of those who need it the most. The support that the Dolphins are able to provide comes from the teamwork of current and alumni coaches and players, cheerleaders, T.D. (the Dolphins mascot) and front office personnel all working together toward the common goals of helping those in need and supporting the community that has always been there to support the Miami Dolphins.

MIAMI DOLPHINS FOUNDATION

The Miami Dolphins Foundation was established in 1995 as the fundraising arm of the Miami Dolphins Football Team. The Dolphins, through the Foundation, have made a commitment to the betterment of South Florida youth through a direct focus on, but not limited to, educational, health, social and community service issues.

The Miami Dolphins Foundation contributes, whenever possible, to charitable groups that are compatible with the philosophy of the Foundation. Resources for contributions are procured through various fundraising events throughout the year.

EDUCATIONAL PARTNERSHIPS

The Miami Dolphins understand that the education of our South Florida youth is of utmost importance. It is for this reason that the Dolphins have partnered with both Broward and Miami-Dade County Public Schools on several extensive programs.

• Pro Player Stadium/Miami Dolphins Scholarship – a $1,000 scholarship is awarded annually to both a Miami Carol City High School and Miramar High School senior who demonstrates strong community service along with a solid academic performance. A $500 honorable mention scholarship is also awarded.

• Teacher of the Year Awards – one teacher from each Miami-Dade and Broward County partner school is selected as a Teacher of the Year and recognized for their accomplishments during a pre-game, on-field presentation.

• Student of the Week Program – working in conjunction with Pro Player Stadium, the Miami Dolphins honor a selected student from each partner school at each regular season home game. The students are selected by their principals and teachers for their citizenship and classroom achievements. In recognition of their accomplishments they are presented with a plaque by Marti Huizenga, wife of Dolphins owner Wayne Huizenga, during an on-field presentation.

Marti Huizenga, wife of team owner Wayne Huizenga, presents plaques to students from each partner school from Miami-Dade and Broward Counties.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

For several years the Miami Dolphins have joined with Habitat for Humanity in sponsoring a home building project for an underprivileged family. In addition to helping build the home, defensive back Sam Madison makes a monetary contribution to Habitat for Humanity for each game he plays in as part of the "Home Team."

DAILY BREAD FOOD BANK

The Miami Dolphins have an ongoing relationship with the Daily Bread Food Bank, an organization that provides food to the needy throughout South Florida. The Miami Dolphins team up with the Daily Bread Food Bank on the following projects:

• Canned Food Drive – each year the "Make A Difference at the Holidays" canned food drive is held at a Miami Dolphins home game prior to Thanksgiving, against the New York Jets on Sunday, November 18. Fans are encouraged to deposit canned goods and other non-perishable food items in collections containers located at each entrance to the stadium.

• Thanksgiving Turkey Giveaway – the Miami Dolphins organization, along with the Tackle Todd Wade (right) was among the many Dolphins players who purchased and helped to distribute turkeys for underprivileged families during the Thanksgiving holiday.

ed with the Daily Bread Food Bank.

• Holiday Luncheon – several Miami Dolphins players take time during the December holidays to serve lunch at the Broward County Partnership for the homeless, a shelter that provides assistance to families and individuals in need, thanks to food donations provided by the Daily Bread Food Bank.

HEALTHSOUTH/MIAMI DOLPHINS CHARITY GOLF TOURNAMENT

The HEALTHSOUTH/Miami Dolphins Charity Golf Tournament is held annually to benefit the Miami Dolphins Foundation. One of the recipients of the funds raised since the tournament's inception in 1998 is former Dolphins All-Pro defensive end, Former Miami Dolphins defensive end Doug Betters, along with Head Coach Dave Wannstedt, at the HEALTHSOUTH/Miami Dolphins Charity Golf Tournament.

Doug Betters, who suffered a spinal cord injury as the result of a skiing accident in his native Montana. The tournament has grown to become a major fundraising event for the Miami Dolphins Foundation. Each year more than 50 current and former players and coaches participate in the tournament which has raised over $300,000 in its four years of existence.

THE MIAMI PROJECT TO CURE PARALYSIS

The Miami Dolphins and The Miami Project to Cure Paralysis enjoy a long-term relationship in the battle to defeat paralysis caused by spinal cord injury. During the 2000 season, linebacker Zach Thomas and defensive ends Jason Taylor and Trace Armstrong teamed up to put a "Crunch on Paralysis" by making a donation for every sack and tackle they made. The trio raised nearly $52,000 for the charity.

HOLIDAY HOSPITAL VISITS

Each year during the holiday season, the Dolphins players, cheerleaders and mascot, T.D., visit area hospitals to brighten the holidays of sick children who are not able to go home for the holidays. While at the hospitals, the players, cheerleaders and mascot visit with the children, take pictures with them, sign autographs and give out Dolphins souvenirs for all the children they visit.

Miami Dolphins players (from left) Deon Dyer and O.J. McDuffie were among many players who helped to brighten the spirits of children confined to hospitals during the holiday season.

TOYS FOR TOTS

Each year, at a Miami Dolphins home game in December, the team sponsors an annual toy drive for underprivileged children in the South Florida community. This season's Toys For Tots drive will take place when the Dolphins play host to the Indianapolis Colts on Monday, December 10. Dolphins fans are encouraged to drop off new, unwrapped toys at entry gates on their way into the stadium. The toys are then distributed through the United States Marine Corps to the less fortunate families in the local area.

COMMUNITY QB AWARD

In its second year, the NFL Community Quarterback Award recognizes community and youth volunteers in each of the the 32 NFL markets who demonstrate leadership, dedication and a commitment to bettering the community in which they live. Each NFL team selects ten finalists, with each receiving grants of $1,000 for their organization. Those ten finalists are narrowed down to two runner-ups and a winner.

Head Coach Dave Wannstedt presents Daily Bread Food bank volunteer Theodore "Papa Ted" Persky with a check for $10,000 for his organization. Persky is the first winner of the Miami Dolphins Community Quarterback Award.

The winner receives a $10,000 grant to their organization, while the runner-ups receive grants of $2,500.

DRUG ABUSE RESISTANCE EDUCATION (D.A.R.E.) PROGRAM

Miami Dolphins coaches and players recognize the importance of educating the youth in our local communities about the dangers associated with alcohol, drug, tobacco and domestic abuse. In an effort to offer alternatives to these vices, the Miami Dolphins work closely with area police departments by providing players and coaches to speak at graduation ceremonies for students who successfully complete the D.A.R.E. program offered at their school.

UNITED WAY

Along with the NFL, the Miami Dolphins actively support the United Way through monetary contributions made by the coaches, players and staff. In addition, the Dolphins also work closely with the United Way of Miami-Dade, Broward and Palm Beach counties on several projects throughout the year, including filming a PSA featuring a prominent Dolphins player as spokesman (O.J. McDuffie is the spokesperson for the 2001 season) and providing in-stadium signage and scoreboard announcements throughout the season. Dolphins players also participate in the NFL/United Way Hometown Huddles Day, a national day of community service.

MAKE-A-WISH FOUNDATION

The Make-A-Wish Foundation and the Miami Dolphins have developed a close relationship over the years in granting wishes of terminally ill children. Wish children are given the opportunity to visit Dolphins Training Camp to watch practice and have a private meet and greet with their favorite Dolphins players. They also attend a home game and meet with coaches and players during a post-game visit.

CYSTIC FIBROSIS FOUNDATION

The Miami Dolphins continue to be strong supporters of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, which is committed to finding a cure for the most common genetic disease in children. The Dolphins work with the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation on the following projects:

• Miami Dolphins Superbowl of Fashion – this black-tie event features an evening of dinner and entertainment while raising much needed funds for cystic fibrosis research. The highlight of the event is a fashion show spotlighting current players as they escort their significant others to show off the latest fashions. Annually, this event raises over $160,000 and has benefited the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation with approximately $1,000,000 in the 12 year history of the event.

Quarterback Jay Fielder escorts Jennifer Eckstrand during the team's annual Superbowl of Fashion.

• Miami Dolphins Fishing Tournament – this five year old event is held in honor of Scott Chait, an avid fisherman and member of the Miami Dolphins Community Relations staff, who passed away at the age 23 after a lifelong battle with cystic fibrosis. Current and former players join avid fishermen for a full day of fun and deep sea fishing with all proceeds benefiting the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

Fullback Rob Konrad holds one of his catches at the Miami Dolphins Fishing Tournament to benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

• Score For A Cure – the entire Miami Dolphins team participates in this program in which corporate sponsors donate a predetermined amount of money each time the Dolphins score. All the money raised through this program goes to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

PRUDENTIAL NO PASSING ZONE

The Miami Dolphins defensive backs as a unit have donated three tickets per player (total of 27 per game) for all the Dolphins home games to the Boys and Girls Clubs of Broward County for the past four seasons. For the 2000 season, Prudential joined the defensive backs in providing Broward Boys and Girls Clubs members with a total of 2,400 tickets for the season. In addition to the tickets, Prudential supplied each child with a Prudential No Passing Zone t-shirt and poster as well as a hot dog and soda at the game. Prudential and the Miami Dolphins defensive backs will continue this program during the 2001 season.

MIAMI DOLPHINS CHEERLEADERS

The Miami Dolphins Cheerleaders continue to be one of the most diverse groups of women in the NFL. The 2001 squad represents six countries and nine states, three are mothers, and 16 are college graduates. There are 21 returning veterans and 17 rookies. The MDC bring excitement and beauty to the sidelines. To accomplish the task of entertaining over 70,000 fans during each home game, the cheerleaders put in long hours during the summer and the weeks leading up to the games.

They cheer on the sidelines at all Miami Dolphins home games and are positioned in each corner of the football field in groups of nine. Each group has a captain, the captain serves as the "quarterback" for the group, she calls the plays and makes quick decisions based on the action in the game.

The Miami Dolphins' 1997 addition might have been their biggest — literally. The club unveiled "T.D.", its new mascot, on Friday, April 18, 1997, the first "official" mascot in the history of the franchise. The 7-foot tall mascot made its public debut at the team's Draft Day Party at Pro Player Stadium on April 19, 1997. In addition, the mascot performs at every Dolphins home game.

When the mascot was first unveiled, it was without a name. The club held a "Name the Mascot" contest that drew over 13,000 entries covering all 50 states and 22 countries, with 529 different names suggested. The name "T.D." was first submitted by Sara Fernandez of Miami, and when that name was selected by the Dolphins organization, she won two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII for her winning entry, which was announced at the annual Dolphins Awards Banquet on June 4, 1997.

The club had a live dolphin, "Flipper," who was situated in a fish tank in the open end of the Orange Bowl during the team's early years, and "Dolfan Denny," who prowled the sidelines for many seasons. However, this marks the first time the club actually has an official mascot, one who participates in many of the team's programs in addition to his gameday activities.

"T.D." is available for appearances. For more information, call the Dolphins mascot hotline at (954) 452-7097.

DOLPHINS NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns. None of those other names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a thousand different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in announcing the team name on October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphins games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame. It ended in a scoreless tie.

PRO PLAYER STADIUM

Pro Player Stadium, South Florida's home to the Miami Dolphins and Florida Marlins, is in its 15th season as the premier sports and entertainment facility in the country. This state-of-the-art open-air complex hosted its first football game in August, 1987, its first regular season Major League baseball game in April, 1993 and stages world class events throughout the calendar year. Pro Player Stadium is one of only five facilities in the country to host NFL football and Major League Baseball in the same venue.

HISTORY

Now in its 15th year of operation, the 75,000 seat, state-of-the-art, open-air facility, originally called Dolphin Stadium, was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds, costing 115 million dollars when it was completed in 1987. The late Joe Robbie led the financing campaign to build "Joe Robbie Stadium" for the Miami Dolphins of the NFL. JRS revolutionized the economics of professional sports when it opened that year. Inclusion of a Club Level, along with Executive Suites, helped to finance the construction of the stadium. Season ticket holders committed to long term agreements and in return they received first-class amenities in a state-of-the-art facility which is still used as a model for new facilities across the country.

On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga, then Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings Inc., agreed to purchase fifty percent of Joe Robbie Stadium and became the point man in the drive to bring Major League Baseball to South Florida. That effort was rewarded in July of 1991, when South Florida was awarded a National League expansion franchise. On January 24, 1994, Mr. Huizenga acquired the remaining fifty percent of the stadium to give him 100% ownership. Since 1991, over 80 million dollars have been spent to upgrade and renovate the stadium. The improvement and revitalization of the building under Huizenga allowed the stadium to remain the finest sports and entertainment facility in the United States.

On August 26, 1996, Pro Player, the sports apparel division of Fruit of the Loom, sponsored the renaming of Joe Robbie Stadium as Pro Player Stadium. They became the first sports marketing and products company to entitle a stadium or arena.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium was held on August 16, 1987, when the Miami Dolphins met the Chicago Bears in a preseason battle. The game also marked the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphins franchise. The stadium hosted the National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII, on January 22, 1989. It marked the return of the Super Bowl to South Florida after a ten year absence. A second Super Bowl was hosted when Super Bowl XXIX was played in the facility on January 29, 1995, and the Super Bowl returned to Pro Player Stadium on January 31, 1999, when the facility hosted Super Bowl XXXIII.

Major League Baseball officially began in South Florida in the spring of 1993 as the Florida Marlins opened their inaugural campaign as a National League team. On April 5, 1993, the "new" look of Pro Player Stadium as a baseball facility was unveiled to the public for the first time as the Florida Marlins hosted the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Marlins began their existence by finishing the first day in first place with a 6-3 win over the Dodgers.

In 1997, Pro Player Stadium hosted four World Series games between the Marlins and the Cleveland Indians, including Game One on Oct. 18, 1997, the first Series game ever played at the stadium, and Game Seven on October 26, 1997, which the Marlins won, 3-2 in 11 innings, to capture their first World Championship.

Before the arrival of the Marlins, the stadium had played host to thirteen spring training games that attracted 370,000 fans and paved the way for baseball in South Florida.

Behind the scenes, Pro Player Stadium underwent renovations to accommodate Major League Baseball and the Florida Marlins. The conversion included the installation of retractable seating on the north side of the stadium, the construction of the baseball press box in the southwest corner of the facility, the building of the baseball dugouts, the addition of 660 new lights for suitable night play and the installation of a hydraulic disappearing pitcher's mound. The stadium also features a synthetic warning track designed to absorb water. At the time, the only other facility to feature this type of track was Oriole Park at Camden Yards, home of the Baltimore Orioles. The renovation also included the construction of the Florida Marlins clubhouse and other amenities to accommodate baseball at Pro Player Stadium.

On the field, Pro Player Stadium is equipped with a Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system which provides draining for its natural grass, and during February and March of 1995, the old PAT system was removed, and a new advanced mechanical drainage system was installed. At a cost of one million dollars, the new system provides three times the drainage capacity of the old system and ensures a firm dry playing surface within half an hour's time after as much as a three inch per hour rain fall.

LOCATION

The stadium is located at 2269 Dan Marino Boulevard in Miami, only one mile south of the Dade-Broward County Line. The 160 acre site stands midway between downtown Miami (16 miles) and downtown Fort Lauderdale (18 miles).

WORLD CLASS EVENTS

Pro Player Stadium displays its versatility every year by hosting a wide variety of events. Along with Miami Dolphins football and Florida Marlins baseball, college football takes the field with the Florida Atlantic University Fighting Owls as well as the FedEx Orange Bowl (which played host to the national championship game in 1998 and 2001) and the Micron P.C. Bowl. Super Bowl XXXIII was held at Pro Player Stadium on January 31, 1999. Major League Baseball's premier event, the World Series, was played at Pro Player Stadium in 1997.

Pro Player Stadium has also played host to numerous concerts, featuring entertainers such as Pink Floyd, Elton John/Billy Joel, the Rolling Stones, Chicago, Genesis, Gloria Estefan, Guns & Roses, The Who, Hall & Oates, Rod Stewart, Paul McCartney, New Kids on the Block, the Three Tenors World Tour, U2 and 'N Sync.

Other events held in the past at Pro Player Stadium include international soccer games featuring the United States World Cup Team, high school football, Monster Truck Shows, and numerous trade shows.

EXECUTIVE SUITES

Pro Player Stadium's 183 suites offer luxury and comfort in the ultimate setting to watch any event. The ten, twelve, sixteen, twenty four and thirty two seat suites have been completely renovated and offer DirecTV access, multi-feed sound systems, refrigerators, ice-makers and private telephone services. Uniformed Suite Captains provide personal service in each suite during the events. Distinctive Gourmet, a Boston Concessions division, caters the suites with a delectable, wide-variety of food and beverages from which to choose.

CLUB LEVEL SEATING

Located on the second level, the 10,200 club level seats provide exceptional luxury with the most space and leg room available in the stadium, featuring seats 21" wide (compared to the 19" wide general seating). The Club Seats lead to air-conditioned lounges with full-service bars and concession areas. The protective overhang, along with wait-staff service also are unique elements of the club level.

HALL OF CHAMPIONS

Pro Player Stadium was proud to introduce the new Hall of Champions during the 1997 Miami Dolphins season. Located in the east endzone area of the Club Level, the Hall of Champions allows groups of 50 to 270 to experience a Miami Dolphins football or Florida Marlins baseball game in style. In addition to club level amenities and entertainment, the Hall of Champions offers interior and exterior seating, a full bar with bartender, a private elevator and many other exclusive privileges.

DINING

Full service concession facilities, managed by Boston Concessions, are available on all levels and include Pizza Hut and Carvel Ice Cream and Yogurt. The stadium was recently recognized by Sports Illustrated for the high quality of its food and beverage service.

VISIONS FOR THE FUTURE

Pro Player Stadium will continue to enhance the fan experience by its commitment to capital improvements. These continuing upgrades and renovations will heighten the guest experience by providing increased comfort, new amenities and better service.

DOLPHINS TRAINING CENTER

On July 11, 1993, the Miami Dolphins officially moved into their brand new training facility at Nova-Southeastern University in Davie, Florida, from their long-time base at St. Thomas University.

The ten million dollar state-of-the-art facility covers 70,000 square feet and incorporates the latest technology and advances that were utilized in the design of other NFL training facilities.

The Dolphins' training center not only houses the team's football operation personnel and the club's administrative staff, but it also serves as the site of the club's preseason training camp and all off-season conditioning programs as well.

The facility includes a large locker room area, sauna and steam rooms, a therapy swimming pool, a cold plunge pool, whirlpools, and one of the largest weight training rooms in the NFL.

In addition to the physical training needs, modern support facilities also were constructed. Those include lounges, conference rooms, equipment rooms, laundry areas, video editing labs, an auditorium that functions as a site for major press conferences as well as for full team and staff meetings, a dance studio for the team's cheerleaders, and the Dolphins Pro Shop, which sells official team merchandise.

Administrative offices, located on the second floor, include the head coaches' office with an adjacent conference room overlooking the practice fields. Offensive and defensive coaches' offices flank these areas. Other office space exists for personnel and administrative staff members.

At the rear of the facility are two full-sized grass football fields, which were constructed utilizing the Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system that also is used for the field at Pro Player Stadium. That system incorporates underground pipes and electronic pumps to remove water from the fields when natural drainage is not adequate.

With a primary emphasis to design the complex in a "fan-friendly" manner, a bleacher structure adjacent to the fields was constructed, utilizing elements of Pro Player Stadium itself. When the stadium was revised to accommodate baseball, large sections of seats from the stadium were removed. Those sections were relocated to the Nova facility as part of the new complex. As a result, the bleacher facility at Nova can accommodate 2,500 spectators, including 600 in chair-back seats, for open practice sessions and other special events. The structure also provides fans permanent amenities such as concession areas, a merchandise pro shop, ticket windows, and rest rooms.

- Enters the 2001 season having appeared in 58 straight league contests.

RB LAMAR SMITH . . .

- If he reaches the 1,000-yard rushing mark in 2001, Smith would become just the second Dolphin to have two or more 1,000-yard rushing seasons, joining Larry Csonka, who did it three times (1971-73).
- Needs to play in 15 regular season games to reach the 100-games played plateau for his career. He enters the 2001 season having appeared in 85 contests.

LB ZACH THOMAS . . .

- With an interception return for a touchdown, Thomas would establish the club's all-time mark in that category. His three returns for scores currently are tied with Dick Anderson for the most in franchise history.
- Thomas' next interception will be the ninth of his career, moving him into sole possession of second on the Dolphins' all-time list for interceptions by a linebacker. He would trail only Earnie Rhone, who accumulated 14 from 1975-84. He currently is tied for second along with Larry Gordon, Bob Matheson and Nick Buoniconti.

P MATT TURK . . .

- Needs to play in six regular season games to reach the 100-games played plateau for his career. Enters the 2001 season having appeared in 94 regular season contests.

The Dolphins became just the fifth AFC team since the 1970 merger of the American and National Football Leagues to record a shutout in the playoffs. Amazingly, Miami has recorded three of the six AFC playoff shutouts by having also earned a 14-0 win over the N.Y. Jets on January 23, 1983, and a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972. The only other AFC playoff shutouts were by the Oakland Raiders (27-0 over the Miami Dolphins on January 6, 2001), the San Diego Chargers (17-0 over Kansas City on January 2, 1993) and the Baltimore Colts (17-0 over the Cincinnati Bengals on December 26, 1970).

DOLPHINS 23, SEAHAWKS 0
September 3, 2000

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins improved their opening day record to 20-14-1 and their record in home openers to 28-6-1. In addition, it was their ninth straight victory on opening day, tying for the third-longest streak in NFL history. In addition, it was Miami's third shutout victory on opening day. The Dolphins took the ball on the opening drive of the game and marched 70 yards in 13 plays and 7:17, culminating with a Lamar Smith four-yard TD run, marking the first time that Miami scored a touchdown on their initial possession of the regular season since 1992. Quarterback Jay Fiedler converted a pair of key third down passes on the drive. The first was a 16-yard completion to Bert Emanuel on third-and-seven from the Dolphins' 33. The second was a 15-yard shovel pass to Thurman Thomas on third-and-12 from the Seahawks' 40. In addition, Smith rushed for 39 yards. Sam Madison intercepted a Jon Kitna pass on Seattle's first possession of the game and returned it four yards to the Dolphins' 35. That led to an eight-play, 35-yard drive that ended with an Olindo Mare 48-yard field goal. Madison came up with his second interception in as many series on the first play of the second quarter when he picked off a Kitna pass and brought it back 34 yards to the Seahawks' 36. Four plays later, Mare connected on a 25-yard field goal. On the next play from scrimmage, Jason Taylor recovered a Kitna fumble at the Seahawks' 16, leading to Mare's third field goal in as many possessions, from 30 yards out, 4:09 into the second quarter. It marked the first time since October 8, 1995 that the Dolphins had scored on each of their first four possessions of a game. Seattle had their best chance to score late in the first half when they got to the Dolphins' 33 on the strength of a Ricky Watters 36-yard run. But Kris Heppner's 52-yard field goal attempt missed wide left. Following the miss, Miami gained possession at their own 42 and traveled 58 yards in seven plays en route to a Fiedler to Oronde Gadsden 16-yard touchdown strike with 43 seconds to play in the half. Fiedler completed all five passes on the march, totaling 51 yards. The Seahawks could not get into Dolphins territory in seven offensive possessions in the second half. The closest either team came to scoring in the second half was when Lamar Smith fumbled into the Seahawks' end zone after a 36-yard run to the Seattle one-yard line. Smith's rushing total of 145 yards was the fourth-most by a Dolphin on opening day.

VIKINGS 13, DOLPHINS 7
September 10, 2000

Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome
Minneapolis, MN

The Vikings took a 3-0 lead with 2:46 to play in the first quarter when Gary Anderson capped a ten-play, 75-yard drive with a 28-yard field goal. The key play on the drive was a 42-yard completion from Daunte Culpepper to Cris Carter to the Dolphins' 19 on third-and-nine. The Vikings got into Dolphins territory on the final play of the first quarter, but Brock Marion intercepted a Culpepper pass on the first play of the second period and returned it 14 yards to the 26. After pinning the Dolphins at their own one-yard line, the Vikings took over at their own 44 with 4:00 left in the second quarter. They got as far as the Dolphins' 18, but Trace Armstrong stripped the ball from Culpepper and Jason Taylor recovered with 23 seconds remaining in the half. Keith Thibodeaux intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass on the third play of the second half, giving Minnesota the ball at their own 47. That drive ended when Brian Walker intercepted a Culpepper pass and returned it one yard to the Dolphins' 39. Although the Vikings were pinned at their own six late in the third quarter following a Matt Turk punt, they embarked on a 13-play, 63-yard drive that ended with an Anderson 49-yard field goal 3:30 into the fourth quarter. Culpepper completed four of seven passes for 44 yards on the scoring march. The Vikings accounted for the game's first touchdown when Culpepper hit Randy Moss for a 15-yard scoring strike with 1:56 remaining in the game. The scoring drive began at the Vikings' 46 after they stopped the Dolphins deep in their own end of the field. Miami responded with a six-play, 66-yard drive that used only 54 seconds of the clock and culminated with a Fiedler to Thurman Thomas two-yard scoring pass with 1:02 to play. Fiedler connected on five of six passes for 66 yards on the march, including a 44-yard strike to Tony Martin on the play prior to the score. Orlando Thomas recovered the onside kick that ensued, and the Vikings ran out the final 58 seconds of the game.

DOLPHINS 19, RAVENS 6
September 17, 2000

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins scored the only six points in a first half that was played through a steady rain. The Dolphins' first series of the game resulted in a 10-play, 47-yard drive that ended with an Olindo Mare 42-yard field goal with 4:55 left in the first quarter. Lamar Smith rushed for 35 yards on the march. Mare notched his second field goal in as many series when he connected on a 41-yard field goal, 2:23 into the second quarter. The scoring drive started at the Ravens' 48 after a 31-yard punt return by Jeff Ogden. The Ravens had the ball at the Miami 27 following an interception, but on their second play from scrimmage, Patrick Surtain intercepted a Tony Banks pass and brought it back 43 yards to the Dolphins' 47. Baltimore then got the ball back at the Dolphins' 35 with 2:07 to play in the opening half. On the strength of a pair of runs totaling 55 yards by Jamal Lewis, the Ravens got to the Dolphins' 12 before Kenny Mixon blocked a Matt Stover 30-yard field goal attempt on the final play of the half. Following a halftime ceremony in which former quarterback Dan Marino was inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll, had his jersey no. 13 retired and had a bronze statue unveiled, the Dolphins embarked on a five-play, 61-yard drive that was capped by a Lamar Smith seven-yard touchdown run. The drive began at the Dolphins' 39 following a 29-yard kickoff return by Brock Marion. Jay Fiedler completed all three of his pass attempts on the drive, totaling 51 yards, including a 28-yard completion to Smith one play prior to the score. Fiedler also hit Leslie Shepherd for a 19-yard completion on third-and-3 from the Dolphins' 46. Baltimore posted its first points of the game with 3:13 to play in the third quarter on a Stover 27-yard field goal, culminating a 13-play, 67-yard drive that used 8:34 of the clock. The Ravens had a first-and-goal from the one, but the Dolphins came up with two sacks in the three plays leading up to the field goal. The Dolphins took a 16-point lead on the third play of the fourth quarter when Fiedler and Smith combined for an eight-yard touchdown strike. On the drive, Fiedler connected on all three of his pass attempts, totaling 62 yards, including a 41-yard completion to Jed Weaver which put the Dolphins at the Ravens' 11 two plays before the touchdown. Baltimore came back with Stover's 33-yard field goal following its next series, which consisted of eight plays covering 55 yards. The Ravens made it to the Dolphins' 13 with just over two minutes to play in the game, but were stopped on fourth-and-two.

DOLPHINS 10, PATRIOTS 3
September 24, 2000

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins improved to 3-1 on the season with a 10-3 win over the New England Patriots before a Pro Player Stadium crowd of 73,344. The Dolphins made it to the Patriots' 17 with just less than five minutes to play in the first quarter, but the drive ended when Henry Thomas intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass and returned it 16 yards to the Patriots' 35. From there, New England went 43 yards in 12 plays en route to an Adam Vinatieri 40-yard field goal, 17 seconds into the second quarter. The Dolphins responded six plays later when Fiedler found Bert Emanuel for a 53-yard touchdown strike, providing Miami with all the scoring that they would need on the day. The Patriots appeared as though they would re-gain the lead late in the second quarter when they were at the Dolphins' six. But Brian Walker jarred the ball loose from Kevin Faulk at the Dolphins' two and Zach Thomas recovered to end that threat. New England once again was in Miami territory, at the Dolphins' 35 with just over a minute to play in the first half, before being turned back on downs. The Dolphins took over at the 38 with 1:06 to play in the half. Fiedler then completed three of his next four passes, totaling 13 yards, and also scrambled for eight yards, in guiding the Dolphins to the Patriots' 26, and setting up an Olindo Mare 43-yard field goal with seven seconds remaining in the half. The Dolphins threatened midway through the third quarter when they got to the Patriots' 34, but Ted Johnson recovered a Bert Emanuel fumble. New England's first trip into Dolphins territory in the second half didn't occur until their fourth possession of the half when they made it to the Miami 35. But Vinatieri's 53-yard field goal attempt hit the crossbar. Trailing by seven points, the Patriots took over at midfield with 3:52 to play in the game. The Patriots traveled 45 yards to the Dolphins' five on the strength of a 28-yard pass from Drew Bledsoe to Terry Glenn on fourth-and-one from the 41. Facing a fourth-and-two from the five with 1:08 to play, Bledsoe's pass intended for Eric Bjornson in the end zone was off the mark, and the Dolphins secured their 14th win-a-row at home in the month of September.

DOLPHINS 31, BENGALS 16
October 1, 2000

Paul Brown Stadium
Cincinnati, OH

The Miami Dolphins came away from their first game at Paul Brown Stadium with a 31-16 win over the Cincinnati Bengals before a crowd of 61,535. The Bengals took the ball on the opening drive of the game and marched 80 yards in 13 plays, the final one being a nine-yard scoring pass from Akili Smith to Peter Warrick. The Bengals converted five first downs and all three of their third-down attempts. Smith completed five of six passes for 43 yards, while Corey Dillon rushed for 27 yards on five carries. Cincinnati added to its lead on its next possession when Neil Rackers converted a 23-yard field goal with 46 seconds remaining in the first quarter. The score capped a drive that used 11 plays, covered 65 yards and consumed 5:20 of the clock. Dillon once again rushed for 27 yards on the drive. Two plays later, Lamar Smith fumbled and John Copeland recovered the ball and returned it four yards to the Dolphins' 28. Cincinnati capitalized off the turnover five plays afterward when Rackers recorded a 38-yard field goal. The Dolphins responded by getting to the Bengals five-yard line on their next possession, but Takeo Spikes intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass at the goal line and returned it seven yards. From there, the Bengals traveled 58 yards to the Dolphins' 30, but a five-yard penalty put them out of field goal range. Miami took over at its own 19 and marched 59 yards to the Bengals' 23, setting up an Olindo Mare 40-yard field goal with 49 seconds to play in the first half. On the final play of the first half, Jason Taylor stripped the ball from Akili Smith, Taylor recovered and returned it 29 yards for his second career touchdown. The Dolphins took their first lead of the game following the opening possession of the third quarter when Lamar Smith busted loose for an 18-yard run, culminating a 13-play, 70-yard drive that used 7:45 of the clock. Miami connected on all four of its third-down attempts on the drive, including three third-and-8 situations. The Dolphins scored their second touchdown in as many series when Jay Fiedler connected with Oronde Gadsden for a seven-yard touchdown pass with 4:39 to play in the third quarter. Miami had taken over at their own 46 after forcing the Bengals to punt. The score came two plays after a 34-yard pass interference penalty put the Dolphins at the Bengals' 12. The Dolphins accounted for their third score in as many series when Fiedler and Gadsden combined for a 21-yard touchdown pass, 2:34 into the fourth quarter, capping a seven-play, 73-yard drive. Two plays prior to the score, Lamar Smith broke away for a 29-yard run to the Bengals' 20. Cincinnati answered with Rackers' third field goal of the afternoon, from 34 yards out, midway through the final period. Dillon accounted for 23 of the 57 yards on the drive. The Bengals had a first-and-goal from the eight late in the contest, but were turned back by the Dolphins' defense.

GAME 6

DOLPHINS 22, BILLS 13
October 8, 2000

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins recorded both their fourth consecutive victory on the year and their fourth straight at home to open the season with a 22-13 win over the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium. Miami marched 48 yards in 11 plays on the opening drive of the game, ending in an Olindo Mare 30-yard field goal, 6:21 into the contest. Of the 11 plays on the drive, Lamar Smith rushed six times for 16 yards. Buffalo tied the game with 1:50 to play in the first quarter when Steve Christie connected on a 45-yard field goal. The Bills had gained possession at the Dolphins' 29 four plays earlier after pinning the Dolphins deep in their own territory. The Dolphins re-gained the lead for good with 6:26 to play in the second quarter when Mare hit from 33 yards out, capping a 49-yard drive that included a 25-yard pass interference penalty on the Bills, putting Miami at the Buffalo 35. After forcing the Bills into a three-and-out, the Dolphins took over at their own 43 on their next series. With the Dolphins facing a third-and-five from their own 48, Jay Fiedler hooked up with Bert Emanuel for a 35-yard completion to the Bills' 17, leading to a Fiedler to Leslie Shepherd 20-yard touchdown strike two plays later. After a Matt Turk punt went out of bounds at the Bills' one, Miami added to its lead when Jermaine Haley tackled Jonathan Linton in the end zone for a safety two plays afterward. Buffalo closed the gap to nine points 2:59 into the fourth quarter when Christie hit on a 23-yard field goal. The Bills got to within two points of the lead following their next possession when Sammy Morris scored on a three-yard run, 6:26 into the fourth quarter. The touchdown came two plays after a 41-yard completion from Rob Johnson to Peerless Price and one play after a 24-yard pass interference penalty on the Dolphins. Buffalo got the ball back at their own 16 with 4:59 to play in the game, but on the first play from scrimmage, Patrick Surtain jarred the ball loose from Sammy Morris following a one-yard reception, Sam Madison picked it up and raced 20 yards into the end zone. The Bills got as far as the Dolphins' 31 on their next series, but a Jerry Wilson interception of a Doug Flutie pass ended the threat, and gave Miami possession at their own 36 with 1:48 remaining in the game.

GAME 7

JETS 40, DOLPHINS 37 (OT)
October 23, 2000

Giants Stadium
East Rutherford, NJ

The Jets gained sole possession of first place in the AFC East by recording the largest comeback win ever against Miami. The game, which lasted four hours and ten minutes, was the longest in the 31-year history of Monday Night Football. The Dolphins took the ball on the opening series of the game and marched from their own 28 to the Jets' two-yard line before having to settle for an Olindo Mare 28-yard field goal. The 14-play, 63-yard drive which used 7:38 of the clock saw Jay Fiedler complete five of six passes totaling 44 yards, including two for 33 yards to Oronde Gadsden. The Dolphins extended their lead on their second possession of the game on a 42-yard scoring pass from Fiedler to Leslie Shepherd with 5:03 to play in the first quarter. Fiedler connected with Gadsden for a 27-yard completion one play prior to the score. Miami scored their second touchdown in as many offensive plays when Lamar Smith broke loose for a 68-yard touchdown run with 3:09 remaining in the first quarter, tying his career-long run and marking the longest run by a Dolphin since 1997. Miami scored for the fourth time in five series when Mare hit on a 42-yard field goal, 2:03 into the second quarter. The Jets scored their first points of the game 53 seconds prior to halftime on a ten-yard touchdown pass from Vinny Testaverde to Wayne Chrebet. The five-play, 53-yard drive included a 15-yard personal foul penalty on the Dolphins that put the Jets at the Miami 17 three plays before the score. The Dolphins got the ball back at their own 40 after the ensuing kickoff went out of bounds. They traveled 34 yards in four plays, setting up Mare's third field goal of the game, from 44 yards out with two seconds left in the half. Miami took over at the Jets' 35 with 3:16 to play in the third quarter after the defense stopped New York on fourth and inches. From there the Dolphins went 35 yards in five plays, the final one being a Lamar Smith three-yard touchdown run to take what appeared to be a commanding 30-7 advantage. New York answered with a 30-yard touchdown pass from Testaverde to Laveranues Coles, 1:11 into the fourth quarter, capping a four-play, 75-yard drive. After forcing Miami into a three-and-out, the Jets embarked on a seven-play, 63-yard march that ended with a one-yard touchdown pass from Testaverde to Jermaine Wiggins. After the Dolphins experienced another three-and-out on offense, the Jets took over at their 19 with 7:35 to play in the game, and progressed to the Dolphins' 17 before John Hall came on to convert a 34-yard field goal with 5:43 to play in the game, cutting the lead to seven points. Miami's third straight series without a first down ended at their own six, and New York gained possession at the Dolphins' 39. Three plays later, Testaverde connected with Chrebet for a 24-yard scoring pass to equal the count at 30 apiece. On the next play from scrimmage, Fiedler found Shepherd in stride for a 46-yard touchdown pass to put the Dolphins back on top with 3:33 to play. The Jets put together another impressive drive, one which consisted of nine plays, 57 yards and ended with a three-yard touchdown pass from Testaverde to Jumbo Elliott with 42 seconds to play, sending the game into overtime. On the third play of the overtime period, Marcus Coleman came up with his second interception on the night of a Fiedler pass. He returned it seven yards before fumbling, and Oronde Gadsden picked up the loose ball at the Dolphins' 34. Five plays later, however, Coleman picked off Fiedler once again, giving the Jets the ball at their own 34. Three plays afterward Testaverde connected with Chrebet for a 28-yard pass play, putting the Jets at the Dolphins' 31, and setting up Hall's game-winning field goal, from 40 yards away with 8:13 left in overtime.

GAME 8

DOLPHINS 28, PACKERS 20

October 29, 2000

Pro Player Stadium

Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins bounced back from a 17-0 deficit to defeat the Green Bay Packers before a crowd of 73,740 at Pro Player Stadium. The Dolphins' 17-point comeback win tied for the third-largest in team history during the regular season and fourth overall, including playoffs. The Packers opened the game with a nine-play, 29-yard drive that ended with a Ryan Longwell 51-yard field goal, 5:50 into the contest. Brett Favre completed all three of his passes, totaling 24 yards, and Dorsey Levens had a three-yard run on fourth-and-one from the Dolphins' 41 on the drive. On Miami's first possession of the game that followed, Thurman Thomas fumbled and Brian Williams recovered to give Green Bay the ball at the Dolphins' 43. From there, the Packers traveled 43 yards in seven plays, the final one being a one-yard touchdown run by Levens with 1:02 left in the first quarter. One play earlier, the Dolphins were flagged for pass interference in the end zone, giving the Packers possession at the Dolphins' one. Green Bay made it three straight possessions with a score when Levens tallied his second touchdown of the game on a seven-yard run, 3:07 into the second quarter. The four-play, 69-yard drive was highlighted by another pass interference penalty on the Dolphins, this one for 39 yards to the Miami 13. The Dolphins notched their first score of the game with 1:15 to play in the first half on a one-yard touchdown run by Jay Fiedler, capping a seven-play, 52-yard drive. Fiedler hit on three of his four pass attempts on the march, totaling 31 yards, including a 17-yard completion to Oronde Gadsden on third-and-11 from the Packers' 20. The Packers had a chance to add on to their lead on the final play of the first half, but Longwell's 53-yard field goal attempt was short. The Dolphins picked up where they left off in the second half as they put together a six-play, 65-yard drive that ended with a 15-yard touchdown pass from Fiedler to Gadsden, 4:11 into the half. The key play was a 37-yard completion from Fiedler to Leslie Shepherd, putting Miami at the Green Bay 28. After forcing the Packers into a three-and-out, the Dolphins took over at their own 37 and marched 63 yards in seven plays en route to a Lamar Smith four-yard touchdown run with 6:03 to play in the third quarter, giving the Dolphins a 21-17 lead. The play that kept the drive alive was a 39-yard run on a fake punt by Larry Izzo on fourth-and-two from the Dolphins' 45, putting Miami at the Packers' 31. A 16-yard pass interference penalty on the Packers ensued two plays later, and a 10-yard run by Smith followed, one play prior to the score. Following Green Bay's next series, the Dolphins' Jeff Ogden took Josh Bidwell's punt at his own 19 and raced 81 yards untouched into the end zone to put the Dolphins out in front by 11 points. The Packers cut the deficit to eight points 4:10 into the fourth quarter when Longwell connected on a 48-yard field goal. The Dolphins' defense then stepped to the forefront on each of the Packers' next two possessions. With Green Bay at the Miami 47, Brock Marion intercepted a Brett Favre pass with 2:58 to play in the game. Then, with 1:46 remaining and the Packers at their own 39, Trace Armstrong stripped the ball from Favre and Kenny Mixon recovered to seal the outcome.

Silverdome
Pontiac, MI

The Miami Dolphins won a game in Detroit for the first time since the 1979 season with a 23-8 victory over the Detroit Lions before a crowd of 77,813 at the Silverdome. The Dolphins took a 7-0 lead on the first play from scrimmage when Lamar Smith broke loose for a 46-yard touchdown run. The score came after Autry Denson returned the game's opening kickoff 56 yards. Terrance Shaw recovered the ensuing onside kick and the Dolphins gained possession at their own 41. From there, the Dolphins traveled 59 yards in ten plays, ending with an eight-yard touchdown run by Smith, who rushed for 15 yards and also caught one pass for nine yards on the drive. The Dolphins opened a 17-point advantage 4:08 into the second quarter on an Olindo Mare 40-yard field goal, capping a seven-play, 64-yard drive. Jay Fiedler completed four of his five pass attempts totaling 63 yards on the march, including a 33-yard strike to Jed Weaver, putting the Dolphins at the Lions' 25. The Lions were driving deep in Dolphins territory in the second quarter, but Sam Madison stripped the ball from Larry Foster at the Dolphins' three, the ball rolled into the end zone and Patrick Surtain recovered. Twan Russell recovered a Terry Fair fumble on the opening kickoff of the second half, giving the Dolphins possession at the Detroit 28. That led to a Mare 38-yard field goal four plays afterward. Mare connected on his third field goal of the game, a 41-yarder with 52 seconds left in the third quarter. The score came nine plays after Brock Marion deflected a John Jett punt, putting the Dolphins at the Lions' 41. Stoney Case hit Johnnie Morton for the two-point conversion. The key play on the drive was a 14-yard completion from Case to Herman Moore on third-and-11 from the Dolphins' 21. Although the Dolphins were forced to punt following their next series, they converted two first downs on the drive and used 4:50 of the clock. Miami's defense then came up big, forcing the Lions into a three-and-out on their next possession, and causing a turnover on a Brock Marion interception on Detroit's final series of the game.

Lamar Smith scored on a pair of touchdown runs to power the Miami Dolphins to a 17-7 win over the San Diego Chargers at Qualcomm Stadium. On the first play of the game, Jay Fiedler connected with Oronde Gadsden for a 61-yard completion to the Chargers' 6, leading to a two-yard touchdown run by Smith two plays later. The Chargers had a chance to put their first points on the board with 5:37 to play in the first quarter, but John Carney missed wide right on a 43-yard field goal attempt. Following the miss, the Dolphins took over at their own 34 and traveled 66 yards in 11 plays en route to a six-yard touchdown run by Smith. Fiedler completed all six of his passes totaling 57 yards on the drive, including a ten-yard strike to O.J. McDuffie on fourth-and-7 from the Chargers' 32. In fact, Fiedler completed each of his first nine passes of the game, which extended into the second quarter. Miami added to its lead with 6:29 remaining in the third quarter on an Olindo Mare 35-yard field goal. The eight-play, 49-yard drive began at the Dolphins' 34 after Brian Walker picked off a Ryan Leaf pass. The key play leading to the score was a 33-yard pass interference penalty that put the Dolphins at the Chargers' 30. San Diego secured its first points of the game on the first play of the fourth quarter when Ryan Leaf hit Fred McCrary for an eight-yard touchdown pass on third-and-two. Overall on the 11-play, 65-yard drive that used 6:34 of the clock, Leaf completed three of five passes for 32 yards and also scrambled once for a six-yard gain. That was as close as the Dolphins would allow the Chargers to get, as Miami yielded only two first downs over San Diego's next two possessions, and Patrick Surtain intercepted a Leaf pass in the end zone with three seconds to play. Miami also controlled the clock for 9:28 of the final period.

GAME 11

JETS 20, DOLPHINS 3
November 19, 2000

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The New York Jets recorded their sixth straight win over the Miami Dolphins, marking their longest winning streak in the series since they also won six in-a-row from 1978-80, with a 20-3 win at Pro Player Stadium. On the game's first play from scrimmage, Dolphins quarterback Jay Fiedler went down with a pinched nerve in his neck following a sack. He did not return and was replaced by Damon Huard. On their second series of the game, the Jets put together an 11-play, 52-yard drive that used 6:08 of the clock and ended with a John Hall 39-yard field goal. The Dolphins tied the contest with 1:08 to play in the first half on an Olindo Mare 47-yard field goal that capped a ten-play, 51-yard drive. The key play was a 29-yard completion from Huard to Oronde Gadsden on third-and-16 from the Dolphins' 14. The Jets gained possession at their own 23 with 1:08 remaining in the half and traveled 62 yards, setting up a 33-yard field goal by Hall as time expired. The key play was a 35-yard completion from Vinny Testaverde to Richie Anderson, putting the Jets at the Dolphins' 27. Following a scoreless third quarter, New York threatened to extend its lead early in the fourth period when they were at the Dolphins' 22, but Terrance Shaw intercepted a Testaverde pass in the end zone. Huard, however, threw his second interception of the game two series later as Tony Scott stepped in front of a pass intended for O.J. McDuffie, giving the Jets possession at the Dolphins' 27. That led to a Bernie Parmalee 18-yard touchdown run three plays later, on third-and-one. Shaun Ellis picked off a Huard pass on Miami's next series, and the Jets took over at the Dolphins' 25. From there, they embarked on a five-play drive that ended with a seven-yard scoring run by Parmalee, with 3:12 to play in the game. Of the Dolphins' seven possessions in the second half, four consisted of three plays or less. They made it into the Jets' end of the field just once in the second half and twice all day, covering 12 total possessions.

GAME 12

DOLPHINS 17, COLTS 14
November 26, 2000

RCA Dome
Indianapolis, IN

Oronde Gadsden caught a 17-yard touchdown pass from Damon Huard with 1:10 left in regulation to score the winning points as the Miami Dolphins came from behind to earn a 17-14 win over the Indianapolis Colts at the RCA Dome. The Colts took the ball on the opening series of the game and marched 86 yards in nine plays en route to a 27-yard touchdown pass from Peyton Manning to Marvin Harrison, 5:14 into the contest. The Colts converted all three of their third down conversions on the drive, all completions by Manning, who hit on four of five passes for 71 yards on the march. Miami mustered its first points of the game three seconds prior to halftime on an Olindo Mare 28-yard field goal, capping a ten-play, 51-yard drive which began at their own 39 after a 26-yard punt return by Jeff Ogden. The key play on the drive was an 11-yard completion from Damon Huard to Tony Martin on third-and-nine from the Dolphins' 40, followed by a 15-yard roughing the passer penalty on the Colts after the play. The Dolphins took their first lead of the game when J.J. Johnson scored on a three-yard run on third-and-goal, following the first series of the second half. Huard completed five of seven passes totaling 45 yards on the 13-play, 74-yard drive that used 7:31 of the clock. The key play was a 12-yard run by Autry Denson on third-and-five from the Colts' 28, five plays prior to the score. Indianapolis re-gained the lead on the second play of the fourth quarter when Manning and Harrison combined for an eight-yard touchdown strike, culminating an 11-play, 79-yard drive. Overall on the drive, Manning threw for 62 yards, including a 32-yard completion to Terrence Wilkins on third-and-12 from the Colts' 40 that gave the Colts possession at the Dolphins' 28. Miami went three-and-out on each of their next two series. Then, with the Colts facing a third-and-seven from the Dolphins' 30 with just more than three minutes to play, Brock Marion intercepted a Manning pass, and the Dolphins gained possession at their own 14 with 2:56 remaining and all three timeouts. On the first play from scrimmage, Huard hit Autry Denson for a 28-yard completion to the 42. That was the first of six passes that Huard would complete on the drive, totaling 76 yards. His final completion was a 17-yard strike for the game-winning score to Gadsden with 1:10 to play. The Colts got as far as the Dolphins' 42 on the final series of the game before Mike Vanderjagt's 59-yard field goal attempt was deflected by Rich Owens.

GAME 13

DOLPHINS 33, BILLS 6
December 3, 2000

Ralph Wilson Stadium
Orchard Park, N.Y.

On a day when the mercury registered 27 degrees at kickoff, the Miami Dolphins won in Buffalo for the first time since 1996. It also marked the first season sweep by the Dolphins over the Bills since 1996. The Dolphins took the ball on the opening series of the game and traveled 64 yards in nine plays en route to a six-yard touchdown pass from Jay Fiedler to Lamar Smith. In addition to the scoring catch, Smith rushed for 45 yards on six carries on the drive. The Bills were at the Dolphins' 17 on their first possession of the game, but the drive ended when Patrick Surtain intercepted a Rob Johnson pass in the end zone on third-and-13. Buffalo had a chance to put its first points on the board 5:14 into the second quarter, but Steve Christie's 47-yard field goal attempt into the wind fell short of the cross bar. Following the miss, the Dolphins took over at their own 37 and put together a seven-play, 63-yard drive that ended with a six-yard touchdown pass from Fiedler to Oronde Gadsden on third-and-goal. The key plays on the drive were a 24-yard completion from Fiedler to O.J. McDuffie on third-and-1 that put the Dolphins at the Bills' 30, followed by a 25-yard strike from Fiedler to Gadsden on the next play from scrimmage. Three plays following that touchdown, Sam Madison intercepted a Johnson pass and returned it 20 yards to the Bills' 11, leading to an Olindo Mare 32-yard field goal four plays afterward. The Dolphins were not done, however. After stopping the Bills on three straight plays, they took over at their own 43, and on the first play from scrimmage, Fiedler hit Tony Martin for a 39-yard completion to the Bills' 18, setting up a 14-yard scoring pass from Fiedler to Leslie Shepherd two plays later. After the Dolphins forced the Bills into a three-and-out on the opening series of the second half, Miami gained possession at their own 49 and traveled 38 yards to set up a 31-yard field goal by Mare. Mare came on to convert his third field goal of the game, a 20-yarder with 2:22 left in the third quarter. It came four plays after Fiedler connected with Shepherd for a 40-yard completion to the Bills' four. The Bills scored their first points of the game on the first play of the fourth quarter when Antowain Smith scored on a one-yard run. The Bills began the five-play, 46-yard scoring drive after Corey Moore recovered a Jay Fiedler fumble at the Dolphins' 46. Mare connected on his fourth field goal of the afternoon, a 26-yarder with 6:29 to play in the game. The score occurred eight plays after Brian Walker intercepted a Doug Flutie pass and returned it 29 yards to the Bills' 25.

GAME 14

BUCCANEERS 16, DOLPHINS 13
December 10, 2000

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins were handed their second straight defeat at home, the first time that happened in the same season to Miami since 1996, with a 16-13 loss to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers at Pro Player Stadium. It was a game that was played through a steady rain, the hardest of which hit in the fourth quarter. The Dolphins opened the scoring with an Olindo Mare 35-yard field goal with 3:11 to play in the first quarter, capping a nine-play, 66-yard drive. Jay Fiedler completed four of his six passes on the drive, totaling 70 yards, including three for 56 yards to Oronde Gadsden. The Dolphins ended one Tampa Bay threat when Brian Walker intercepted a Shaun King pass with the Bucs at their own 42. But on the next play from scrimmage, Bucs LB Jamie Duncan intercepted a Fiedler pass and went 31 yards untouched for a touchdown. Tampa Bay got as far as the Dolphins' 14 on their next series, but Martin Gramatica's 34 yard field goal attempt was wide left. Fiedler suffered his second interception of the game when Shelton Quarles snared one of his passes and returned it five yards to the Dolphins' 32 with 13 seconds to play in the half. King hit Warrick Dunn for a 12-yard completion on the next play, and Gramatica followed that with a 38-yard field goal as time expired in the half. After forcing the Bucs into a three-and-out on the opening drive of the second half, the Dolphins took over at their own 47 on their initial possession of the half, and traveled 48 yards in nine plays en route to a Mare 23-yard field goal. Miami stopped Tampa Bay once again on the ensuing series, and then got the ball back at midfield after an 18-yard punt. Seven plays later, the Dolphins re-gained the lead on a Lamar Smith one-yard touchdown run with 3:18 remaining in the third quarter. The score came one play after Smith busted loose for a 19-yard run. The key play on the drive was a 19-yard completion from Fiedler to Gadsden on third-and-13 from the Dolphins' 47. The Bucs came right back to tie the game at 13 apiece as they embarked on a 13-play, 77-yard drive that ended with a 30-yard field goal by Gramatica, 4:24 into the fourth quarter. King connected with Dunn for a 23-yard completion on third-and-10 from the Bucs' 30 to put Tampa Bay into Dolphins territory. Three plays later, King hit Dave Moore for a 22-yard completion on third-and-eight from the Dolphins' 45. But a holding penalty and a sack pushed Tampa Bay back to the Dolphins' 46 before King and Dunn hooked up for a 45-yard completion on second-and-33, five plays prior to the field goal. On the first play from scrimmage after the field goal, Fiedler fumbled the snap from center and Duncan recovered at the Dolphins' 30, leading to Gramatica's third field goal of the day, from 46 yards away, 6:48 into the final frame. Two plays later, Donnie Abraham picked off a Fiedler pass at the Dolphins' 28. Miami was able to dodge that bullet, though, by stopping the Bucs on three straight plays and forcing them to punt. The Dolphins got as far as the Bucs' 47 on their next series, but could not convert on third-and-six. The punt that followed was downed at the Bucs' two, and the Dolphins then got the ball back at midfield after stopping Tampa on three straight plays which totaled just two yards. The Dolphins then made it to the Bucs' 19 on the strength of a pair of Tampa Bay penalties. After being pushed back to the 30-yard line as a result of an intentional grounding penalty, any Dolphins comeback hopes were ended when Damien Robinson intercepted a Fiedler pass at the Bucs' nine with 14 seconds left in the game.

GAME 15

COLTS 20, DOLPHINS 13
December 17, 2000

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Colts won for the second straight time in Miami, the first time they accomplished that feat since 1987-88. In the process, they denied the Dolphins a chance to wrap up the AFC East title. The Colts had a fourth-and-two from their own 45 on their first possession of the game, but the Dolphins were called for delay of game, giving them a first down from midfield. On the next play from scrimmage, Peyton Manning hit Marcus Pollard in stride for a 50-yard touchdown strike. The Colts got to the Dolphins' 27 with less than four minutes to play in the first quarter, but Jason Taylor recovered an Edgerrin James fumble to end the threat. Three plays later, however, Dolphins running back Lamar Smith fumbled and Jason Belser recovered at the Dolphins' 36. That turnover led to a Manning four-yard scoring run, eight plays later, 2:38 into the second quarter. The Dolphins notched their first points of the game with 1:54 remaining in the first half on an Olindo Mare 25-yard field goal, capping a 10-play, 81-yard drive, in which Smith rushed for 36 yards on five carries. Indianapolis answered with an eight-play, 46-yard drive that ended with a Mike Vanderjagt 48-yard field goal as time expired in the half. Manning completed all three of his pass attempts, totaling 28 yards, on the march, while James rushed for the remaining 18 yards. The Colts put together an impressive 14-play, 66-yard drive that used 8:19 of the clock and ended with a 31-yard field goal by Vanderjagt to open the second half of play. Manning hit on seven of his nine pass attempts, totaling 35 yards, on the march. The Dolphins responded with a nine-play, 74-yard drive that ended with a Smith eight-yard touchdown run on fourth-and-one, with 2:43 left in the third quarter. A 24-yard completion from Jay Fiedler to Jed Weaver put the Dolphins in Colts territory, while a 20-yard strike to Tony Martin gave the Dolphins the ball at the 17. The Dolphins closed the deficit to seven points on a 31-yard field goal by Mare with 3:25 to play in the game. Fiedler completed two of three passes, totaling 30 yards, on the nine-play, 48-yard drive, including a 17-yard strike to Oronde Gadsden that put the Dolphins at the Colts' 29. That was as close as Miami could get, however. After forcing the Colts into a three-and-out, Miami gained possession, but could not get past its own 35 before Jeff Burris intercepted a Fiedler pass with 2:15 remaining in the game.

GAME 16

DOLPHINS 27, PATRIOTS 24
December 24, 2000

Foxboro Stadium
Foxboro, MA

Miami earned its first division title since 1994, and its fourth straight playoff appearance by recording its first win in a regular season finale since 1996. The Dolphins posted the first points of the game, 5:04 into the contest, on an Olindo Mare 47-yard field goal. It marked the 16th straight successful kick for Mare, tying for the second-longest streak in club history. The score also occurred four plays after Jeff Ogden returned a punt 56 yards to the Patriots' 33. The ensuing onside kick attempt was recovered by New England, and the Patriots took over at their own 49. That led to a nine-play drive that ended with a Tony Carter one-yard touchdown run with 4:05 to play in the first quarter. Drew Bledsoe completed all four of his passes, totaling 39 yards, on the march. The Patriots expanded their lead to 11 points on a 52-yard touchdown pass from Bledsoe to Kevin Faulk with 8:16 remaining in the first half. The score capped a four-play, 83-yard drive in which Bledsoe and Faulk combined for a 28-yard completion two plays prior to the score. Miami got its first touchdown of the game on a nine-yard touchdown pass from Jay Fiedler to Hunter Goodwin on third-and-goal with 3:40 left in the opening half, marking the first touchdown of Goodwin's NFL career. It came three plays after Jason Taylor intercepted a Bledsoe pass and returned it two yards to the Patriots' 12. The Dolphins re-gained the lead 1:27 later on a Lamar Smith one-yard touchdown run. The score was set up four plays earlier when Brock Marion blocked a Lee Johnson punt and Twan Russell recovered at the Patriots' nine. The Patriots went back on top with three seconds remaining in the half on a 16-yard touchdown pass from Bledsoe to Terry Glenn. Bledsoe connected on five of nine passes for 71 yards on the ten-play, 80-yard drive. The Dolphins had a chance to cut the Patriots' advantage to one point 4:30 into the third quarter, but Mare missed wide right on a 47-yard field goal attempt. The Patriots took over at their own 37 and marched 48 yards in eight plays en route to an Adam Vinatieri 33-yard field goal with 6:07 left in the third quarter. New England appeared as though it would take a 14-point lead following a 59-yard pass from Bledsoe to Jermaine Wiggins with just over three minutes to play in the third quarter. But Derrick Rodgers punched the ball loose from Wiggins at the Dolphins' 22, and Brock Marion recovered in the end zone for a touchback. From there, the Dolphins traveled 70 yards to the Patriots' 10, but could not capitalize as Mare missed wide left on a 28-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins bounced back to tie the game on their next series with an 11-play, 65-yard drive that ended with a Lamar Smith one-yard touchdown run with 4:09 to play. After Fiedler's first pass of the drive fell off the mark, he went on to complete each of his next seven attempts, totaling 69 yards, including a 14-yard strike to Lamar Smith one play prior to the score. On the next play from scrimmage, Bledsoe connected with Troy Brown for a 22-yard completion to the Dolphins' 38. On the following play, Zach Thomas intercepted a Bledsoe pass at the Dolphins' 24. Miami then embarked on a 12-play, 45-yard drive that culminated with Mare's 49-yard field goal with nine seconds remaining. The drive consisted of two third down pass completions by Fiedler, who completed six of eight passes for 45 yards on the drive. After the game seemingly ended following an incomplete pass by Bledsoe from the Patriots' 40, both teams were called back on the field 35 minutes later after it was ruled that three seconds still remained. Michael Bishop's final pass attempt was off the mark.

DOLPHIN FACT

Since 1970, the Dolphins have had 135 players selected to appear in the Pro Bowl. Sam Madison has been voted as a starter to the AFC squad each of the last two years, becoming the only cornerback in team history to be named to the Pro Bowl team. Offensive guard is the position which Miami has been represented at most often (19 times, led by Bob Kuechenberg's six appearances). Surprisingly, despite the high number of appearances by the rest of the offensive line (also, 13 by centers), Dolphins offensive tackles have played in the Pro Bowl on only ten occasions (Richmond Webb, seven times; Norm Evans, twice and Wayne Moore, once).

PRESEASON GAME 1

STEELERS 13, DOLPHINS 10
August 5, 2000

Three Rivers Stadium
Pittsburgh, PA

The Dolphins got into Steelers territory on their opening possession of the game, but were stopped just short of a first down on fourth-and-six from the 33. Miami also found itself in Pittsburgh's end of the field when Sam Madison intercepted a Kordell Stewart pass at the 36 on the ensuing series, but the Dolphins could not capitalize on that opportunity either. The Steelers advanced to the Dolphins' 13 on a 30-yard pass interference penalty on Miami. That led to a 30-yard field goal by Kris Brown, 3:30 into the second quarter. The Dolphins tied the game with 3:40 remaining in the first half on an Olindo Mare 33-yard field goal, seven plays after Leslie Shepherd returned a punt 46 yards to the Steelers' 27. Pittsburgh took over at their own 22 with 3:40 left in the first half and marched to the Dolphins' 25 before Brown missed wide left on a 43-yard field goal with 24 seconds left in the half. The Dolphins scored the first touchdown of the game with 4:07 to play in the third quarter on a two-yard scoring run by Autry Denson. Denson was the offensive star of the 16-play, 78-yard drive as he rushed for 20 yards and caught one pass for 26 yards to convert a third-and-13. The Steelers equaled the count with 6:41 to play in the game on a three-yard scoring run by Chris Fuamatu-Ma'a'afala. The key play on the 66-yard drive was a 33-yard pass interference penalty, putting Pittsburgh at the Miami 26 four plays prior to the touchdown. A Tee Martin 18-yard scramble to the Dolphins' five ensued two plays after the penalty. The Steelers gained possession once again at their own 20 with 3:20 remaining in the game. On the second play from scrimmage, Fuamatu-Ma'a'afala broke loose for a 60-yard run to the Dolphins' 15, setting up a Kris Brown 25-yard field goal four plays later, with 1:34 left in the contest.

PRESEASON GAME 2

DOLPHINS 15, BUCCANEERS 13
August 10, 2000

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins made it to the Bucs' 12 on the opening series of the game, but an Alshermund Singleton interception thwarted that threat. The Dolphins marched down the field on their ensuing possession when a 14-play, 50-yard drive was capped by an Olindo Mare 26-yard field goal with 20 seconds to play in the first half. Lamar Smith rushed for 30 yards on the drive, but the key play was a 17-yard completion from Damon Huard to Thurman Thomas on third-and-nine from the Bucs' 35. Tampa Bay marched to the Miami 32 early in the second quarter, but that drive ended when Brock Marion picked off a Shaun King pass. The Dolphins added to their lead on the final play of the first half when Mare connected on a 21-yard field goal, two plays after Tampa Bay received a 48-yard pass interference penalty that put the Dolphins at the Bucs' four. Mare accounted for his third field goal of the night, from 54 yards away with 2:32 left in the third quarter, four plays after Damian Gregory intercepted an Eric Zeier pass at the Bucs' 42. Yo Murphy returned the ensuing kickoff 51 yards to the Dolphins' 49. From there, Tampa Bay went 49 yards in five plays en route to a 17-yard scoring pass from Zeier to Kevin McLeod, nine seconds into the final frame. The Dolphins got to the Tampa Bay 23-yard line on their drive that followed, but a fumble ended that possession. With the Bucs at midfield, Dolphins linebacker Tommy Hendricks recovered a Joey Hamilton fumble and returned it 17 yards, setting up a Mare 25-yard field goal with 4:21 remaining in the game. Aaron Stecker brought back the kickoff that followed 78 yards, and a five-yard facemask penalty put the Bucs at the Dolphins' 13, leading to Stecker's two-yard touch-down run two plays afterward. The pass for the two-point try was off the mark. Miami started their final drive of the game at their own 32 with 1:03 to play. Quarterback Mike Quinn completed each of his first two passes, totaling 45 yards, to put the Dolphins at the Bucs' 32. After a seven-yard scramble by Quinn, Mare came on to convert his fifth field goal of the game, a 42-yarder with nine seconds to play, giving the Dolphins their first victory of the 2000 preseason.

PRESEASON GAME 3

DOLPHINS 17, PACKERS 14
August 21, 2000

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

After missing on each of his first three field goal attempts, kicker Olindo Mare gave the Dolphins a 3-0 lead on a 34-yard field goal with 21 seconds to play in the first half, capping a 16-play, 68-yard drive that used 8:34 of the clock. Lamar Smith rushed for 30 yards on the drive and Damon Huard completed five of six passes for 30 yards. The Packers got to the Dolphins' 37 on the first drive of the second half, but that threat ended when Sam Madison intercepted a Matt Hasselbeck pass in the end zone. Green Bay scored their first points of the night 1:33 into the fourth quarter when Herbert Goodman broke loose for a 56-yard scoring run. The Dolphins took over at their own 29 and quarterback Mike Quinn led a nine-play, 71-yard drive that ended with an eight-yard touchdown pass from Quinn to Oronde Gadsden on third-and-goal. Quinn threw for 43 yards and J.J. Johnson ran for 33 yards on the march. That lead was short-lived, however, when two plays afterward Danny Wuerffel and Donald Driver hooked up for an 80-yard touchdown catch-and-run. With 30 seconds to play in the game, Ben Kelly returned a punt 73 yards to the Packers' two, setting up a two-yard touchdown pass from Quinn to Deon Dyer on the next play from scrimmage, with 25 seconds remaining.

August 25, 2000

Louisiana Superdome
New Orleans, LA

The Saints took a 3-0 lead 3:45 into the contest on a Doug Brien 34-yard field goal. A 38-yard pass interference penalty, which put the Saints at the Dolphins' 34, set up the score. Brock Marion returned the ensuing kickoff 43 yards to the Dolphins' 49. From there, the Dolphins traveled 46 yards en route to an Olindo Mare 23-yard field goal. Arturo Freeman recovered the onside kick that followed for the Dolphins. Two plays later Darren Perry intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass and raced 58 yards for a touchdown. The Dolphins tied the game 5:58 into the second quarter on a one-yard touchdown run by J.J. Johnson, capping a 14-play, 83-yard drive that consumed 9:49 of the clock. Johnson ran for 28 yards on the scoring march while Fiedler completed six of seven passes, totaling 59 yards. Included in Fiedler's totals were consecutive completions of 18 and 17 yards to Oronde Gadsden and Bert Emanuel, respectively, after the Dolphins faced a second-and-31 from their own 24. The Dolphins threatened once again late in the first half, but Corey Harris intercepted a Fiedler pass with Miami at the New Orleans 13. The Saints got to the Dolphins' 40 on the drive that followed, but Arturo Freeman recovered an Aaron Craver fumble and returned it 45 yards to the Saints' 18. That led to a Mare 31-yard field goal four plays later. The Dolphins added to their lead with 4:24 left in the third quarter on a Mare 34-yard field goal. Miami opened a 12-point advantage with 1:02 to play in the third quarter on a five-yard touchdown pass from Mike Quinn to Jed Weaver on third-and-goal. The Dolphins had gained possession at the Saints' three-yard line three plays earlier when Trent Gamble recovered a Dolphins punt that first hit the Saints' Ryan Thelwell. The Dolphins were at the Saints' one late in the game but were stopped on fourth-and-goal. The Saints took over and marched 99 yards en route to an eight-yard touchdown pass from Jake Delhomme to Willie Jackson ten plays later. The Saints got to the Dolphins' 23 on their final possession, but Rameel Connor sacked Delhomme on the last play of the game.

DOLPHIN FACT

Dave Wannstedt was named Head Coach of the Miami Dolphins on January 16, 2000, and became the fourth coach in club history, joining George Wilson (1966-69), Don Shula (1970-95) and Jimmy Johnson (1996-99). Excluding the NFL's two recent expansion teams (Carolina and Jacksonville) and the Baltimore Ravens, the Dolphins have had the NFL's low total of four head coaches in the history of their club.

 - Apr. 28 – The Dave Wannstedt era officially begins as the Dolphins take the field for the first time in minicamp under the new Dolphins head coach.
 - May 3 – The Dolphins name Rick Spielman as Vice President-Player Personnel. Spielman had served as Director of Pro Personnel with the Chicago Bears since 1997.
 - June 12 – Huizenga Holdings, Inc., the private company that represents many of the non-publicly traded business interests of the Huizenga family, announce that it retained the investment banking firm of Morgan Stanley Dean Whitter to explore strategic alternatives regarding the financial structure of the Miami Dolphins and Pro Player Stadium. Alternatives include the potential of additional investors in the team and the stadium, as well as naming rights for the stadium.
 - Aug. 21 – The portion of N.W. 199 Street in front of Pro Player Stadium is re-named "Dan Marino Boulevard". The new address for the Dolphins' home becomes 2269 Dan Marino Boulevard.
 - Aug. 23 – More than 50,000 fans show up at Pro Player Stadium for the public tribute to Dan Marino. The night's festivities include appearances by the five other members of the famed quarterback "Class of '83" – John Elway, Jim Kelly, Todd Blackledge, Tony Eason and Ken O'Brien – as well as former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula and former Steelers quarterback Terry Bradshaw. The band "Hootie and the Blowfish" provide the musical entertainment, while the four-hour event concludes with a gala fireworks display.
 - Sept. 3 – Jay Fiedler opens at Quarterback in the Dolphins' season-opener against Seattle at Pro Player Stadium. Fiedler is the first quarterback to start on opening day for the Dolphins other than Dan Marino since 1983. Fiedler completes 15 of 24 passes for 134 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions in the Dolphins' 23-0 win, the third shutout victory on opening day in franchise history and the first since 1983.
 - Sept. 17 – The Dolphins defeat the eventual Super Bowl champion Baltimore Ravens, 19-6, in a game that was played through a steady rain at Pro Player Stadium. At halftime of the game, former quarterback Dan Marino has his jersey No. 13 retired, the second Dolphin ever to receive that honor. He also becomes the 13th member of the Dolphin Honor Roll.
 - Oct. 8 – For the first time since September 21, 1997 at Tampa Bay, the Dolphins wear their white jerseys with white pants in a 22-13 victory over Buffalo at Pro Player Stadium.

- Oct. 23 – On a Monday night at the Meadowlands, the Dolphins hold a commanding 30-7 fourth-quarter lead over the New York Jets. The Jets, however, post 30 of the 37 points scored in the fourth quarter to send the game into overtime, where John Hall ended the four hour, ten minute epic with a 40-yard field goal, 6:47 into the extra period. It was the largest comeback win ever against the Dolphins, while it also marked the longest game in the 31-year history of ABC Monday Night Football.
- Dec. 10 – In a 16-13 loss to Tampa Bay at Pro Player Stadium, running back Lamar Smith rushes for 79 yards and surpasses the 1,000-yard rushing plateau for the season. Smith becomes the first Dolphin to accomplish the feat since Karim Abdul-Jabbar in 1996 and the fifth player overall to do it.
- Dec. 24 – The Dolphins earn a 27-24 victory over the Patriots on Christmas Eve at Foxboro Stadium to claim the 16th AFC East title in club history and the first since 1994. Thirty-five minutes following the apparent conclusion of the game, both teams were summoned back onto the field after it was determined that three seconds still remained with the Patriots having the ball at their own 40. Michael Bishop's final pass attempt of the game fell incomplete at about the Dolphins' 25.
- Dec. 30 – The Dolphins erase a 14-0 third-quarter deficit by scoring 23 of the next 26 points en route to a 23-17 overtime win against the Colts in an AFC First-Round Playoff game at Pro Player Stadium. It marked the second-largest comeback win in Dolphins postseason annals. The winning points were scored on a 17-yard run by running back Lamar Smith with 3:34 to play in the first overtime. It capped a day in which Smith set an NFL playoff record with 40 rushing attempts. His 209 rushing yards is the second-highest figure in NFL playoff history and the most-ever by a Dolphin (regular season or postseason).

PLAYOFF HISTORY

1970 AFC PLAYOFF

RAIDERS 21, DOLPHINS 14
December 27, 1970

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raider right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphin kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

December 25, 1971

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 21, COLTS 0

January 2, 1972

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks, Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads." Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphin nine in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

COWBOYS 24, DOLPHINS 3
January 16, 1972

Tulane Stadium
New Orleans, LA

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

DOLPHINS 20, BROWNS 14
December 24, 1972

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to a poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphin linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 21, STEELERS 17
December 31, 1972

Three Rivers Stadium
Pittsburgh, PA

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

DOLPHINS 14, REDSKINS 7
January 14, 1973

Memorial Coliseum
Los Angeles, CA

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl paid crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

1973 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 34, BENGALS 16
December 23, 1973

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted long field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlmann booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards – the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff – to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 27, RAIDERS 10
December 30, 1973

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 40 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII

DOLPHINS 24, VIKINGS 7
January 13, 1974

Rice Stadium
Houston, TX

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphin six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF

RAIDERS 28, DOLPHINS 26
December 21, 1974

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphin 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

OILERS 17, DOLPHINS 9
December 24, 1978

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphin turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphin quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oiler 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

December 30, 1979

Pittsburgh, PA

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steeler 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter.

1981 AFC PLAYOFF

CHARGERS 41, DOLPHINS 38 (OT)
January 2, 1982

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. The Pro Football Hall of Fame voted the contest as the "NFL's Game of the '80s." Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Charger quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Charger tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphin 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked – a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (first round)

DOLPHINS 28, PATRIOTS 13

January 8, 1983

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphin QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from David Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

The Dolphins choked off the famed Charger offense and won 34-13. The Dolphin defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards – 203 yards below its league-leading average - while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphin defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards – their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphin offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphin QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Charger kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Charger 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphin rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 14, JETS 0
January 23, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

For the third time in as many games in 1982, the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season – two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season – but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII

REDSKINS 27, DOLPHINS 17
January 30, 1983

Rose Bowl
Pasadena, CA

The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl – 103,667 fans – the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play – fourth-and-one from the Redskin 43 with 10:01 to play – Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF

SEAHAWKS 27, DOLPHINS 20
December 31, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphin rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami's Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

1984 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, SEAHAWKS 10
December 29, 1984

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphin 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 45-28 in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

SUPER BOWL XIX

49ERS 38, DOLPHINS 16
January 20, 1985

Stanford Stadium
Palo Alto, CA

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play – Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphin deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching's 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play – 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

1985 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 24, BROWNS 21
January 4, 1986

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar, who had played two college seasons in the Orange Bowl for the University of Miami, hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns first points of the day. Earnest Byner (16-161) ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport (6-48) to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mosi Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

1990 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 17, CHIEFS 16

January 5, 1991

Joe Robbie Stadium

Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw two fourth quarter touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a dramatic come-from-behind 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 67,276 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the final period, Marino hit on all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and two touchdowns. It was the 16th time in his career that Marino has engineered a fourth quarter comeback. Including the third quarter, Marino hit on his last ten pass attempts to lead the Dolphins back from a 13-3 deficit to a 17-16 win. The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter when Charles Washington blocked a Reggie Roby punt and returned the ball to Miami's 37-yard line. However, Miami's defense stiffened and held the Chiefs to a 27-yard field goal by Nick Lowery. Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich tied the score at 3-3 in the second period by booting an NFL playoff record 58-yard field goal. Stoyanovich's kick broke the previous record of 54 yards by Detroit's Eddie Murray on December 24, 1983, against San Francisco and it was the second-longest kick of Stoyanovich's career. The Chiefs took a 10-3 halftime lead by scoring on a 26-yard touchdown strike from Steve DeBerg to Stephone Paige. The Chiefs extended their lead to 16-3 on a pair of third quarter field goals by Lowery from 25 and 38 yards. In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins closed the score to 16-10 as Marino hit fullback Tony Paige with a one-yard touchdown pass. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Sammie Smith on a fourth-and-two from Kansas City's 45-yard line. The Dolphins forced the Chiefs to punt on their next possession and received the ball on their own 15-yard line with 10:39 left in the game. The Dolphins converted three third downs and drove to the Chiefs' 12-yard line with 3:28 left in the contest before Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Miami a 17-16 lead. However, the Chiefs had a chance to win the game as they drove from their own 22-yard line to the Dolphin 34 before Lowery's 52-yard field goal attempt was just short.

1990 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BILLS 44, DOLPHINS 34

January 12, 1991

Rich Stadium
Orchard Park, NY

The Miami Dolphins saw the 1990 season come to an end with a 44-34 loss to the Buffalo Bills in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest in the snow and ice at Rich Stadium. The game was an offensive shootout as the teams combined for 78 points, 48 first downs, 923 total net yards, 662 passing yards, 261 rushing yards, nine touchdowns and five field goals. Individually, Dan Marino (23 of 49 for 323 yards with three TDs and two INTs) and Jim Kelly (19-29-339-3-1) both passed for over 300 yards. Kelly became the only quarterback to throw for over 300 yards against the Dolphin defense in 1990. Mark Duper (three catches for 113 yards and a score) and Buffalo's Andre Reed (4-122-2) and James Lofton (7-149-1) all went over the 100-yard receiving mark. On the ground, the Bills' Thurman Thomas (32 carries for 117 yards and two TDs) and Miami's Sammie Smith (21-99) led the way. Buffalo dominated the first quarter and jumped out to a 13-3 lead. The Bills scored on their first possession as Kelly hit Reed with a 40-yard touchdown strike and the Dolphins answered the score with a 49-yard field goal to close the score to 7-3. Buffalo added a pair of Scott Norwood field goals – from 24 and 22 yards – to close the first quarter scoring. The Bills struck first in the second quarter on a five-yard run by Thomas to lead 20-3. Miami answered the score on its next possession as Marino and Duper combined for a 64-yard touchdown. The Bills came right back and scored as Kelly threw 13 yards for a score to Lofton to take a 27-10 lead. On their next possession Miami was forced to punt, however the Bills' Al Edwards fumbled the punt and Reggie Roby recovered for Miami on Buffalo's 47-yard line. Miami drove down to the two-yard line where Marino ran in for the score to narrow Buffalo's lead to 27-17 at the half. The Dolphins and Buffalo exchanged third quarter field goals as Stoyanovich hit from 22 yards and Norwood connected from 28 yards. Miami closed the score to 30-27 early in the fourth quarter as Marino threw a two-yard touchdown pass to offensive guard Roy Foster. It was the first reception and touchdown of Foster's career as he became the first offensive or defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown in a post-season contest since Chicago Bears' defensive tackle William Perry rumbled in from a yard out in Super Bowl XX on January 26, 1986. However, the Bills struck back for 14 quick points to put the game away. First, Thomas scored his second touchdown of the game on a five-yard run. On the ensuing kickoff, Miami returner Marc Logan fumbled the ball and Norwood recovered for Buffalo on the Dolphins' 29-yard line. Two plays later, Kelly and Reed combined for a 26-yard scoring toss and a 44-27 lead. The Dolphins scored the final touchdown of the game with just 1:15 remaining as Marino hit Tony Martin with an eight-yard touchdown pass.

1992 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, CHARGERS 0

January 10, 1993

Joe Robbie Stadium

Miami, FL

Miami cornerback Troy Vincent recorded a pair of interceptions and quarterback Dan Marino threw three touchdown passes to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory was the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972 in the Orange Bowl, a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 16, 1983 in the Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on December 29, 1984 in the Orange Bowl. Overall, the Miami defense totaled four interceptions (also safety Louis Oliver and linebacker Bryan Cox), a forced fumble (by cornerback Stephen Braggs), a fumble recovery (by linebacker Dwight Hollier) and a sack (by defensive end Jeff Hunter). The Dolphins held the Chargers to just ten first downs (three rushing and seven passing), 202 yards of total offense (70 rushing and 132 passing) and three of 15 on third down conversions. The Chargers' 15 possessions ended in seven punts, four interceptions, twice on downs, once on a lost fumble and once at the end of the first half. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins exploded for 21 points in the second quarter to take a 21-0 lead at the half. Miami's 21 points in the second quarter was the most scored by the Dolphins in any quarter of a playoff game in team history. The previous team high for points in a quarter was 20 points which was scored by Miami in the second quarter against San Diego on January 6, 1983. Miami opened the scoring following a Vincent interception which gave the team possession on San Diego's 48-yard line. Marino led the Dolphins on a nine-play, 48-yard drive which was capped-off as Marino tossed a one-yard scoring pass to fullback Tony Paige. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 later in the period as the team again gained possession of the ball following a Vincent interception and drove 37 yards and scored on a nine-yard connection from Marino to tight end Keith Jackson. Miami scored the final points of the first half as Marino again connected with Jackson and the tight end made a diving 30-yard reception in the end zone for the score. Jackson became just the fourth player in team history to record two touchdown receptions for the Dolphins in a playoff contest. Miami and San Diego played to a scoreless third quarter before the Dolphins scored the game's final ten points in the fourth quarter. Miami increased its lead to 24-0 early in the final stanza as kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins scored the final points of the game as running back Aaron Craver scored on a 25-yard run to increase the margin to 31-0.

1992 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

BILLS 29, DOLPHINS 10
January 17, 1993

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins suffered five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team dropped a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship Game before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Buffalo opened the scoring midway through the opening period as defensive end Bruce Smith sacked Miami quarterback Dan Marino and forced a fumble which was recovered by Bills linebacker Darryl Talley on the Dolphins' 47-yard line. Buffalo scored off the takeaway as Steve Christie converted on a 21-yard field goal. Miami tied the score at 3-3 later in the period as Pete Stoyanovich converted on a 51-yard field goal attempt. The Bills took a 10-3 lead early in the second period as quarterback Jim Kelly threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to running back Thurman Thomas. On Miami's next possession, Marino's pass attempt was batted in the air by Buffalo defensive end Phil Hansen and intercepted by Hansen on the Dolphins' 17-yard line. The Bills increased their lead to 13-3 as Christie kicked on a 33-yard field goal. Buffalo took a 20-3 lead early in the third quarter by capitalizing on another Miami turnover as kick returner Mike Williams fumbled the second half kickoff and Buffalo's Carwell Gardner recovered the ball on the Dolphins' 25-yard line. The Bills scored four plays later as running back Kenneth Davis ran into the end zone for a two-yard touchdown. Buffalo increased its lead to 26-3 as Christie hit on a pair of field goals from 21 and 31 yards. Miami closed the score to 26-10 as Marino connected with wide receiver Mark Duper on a 15-yard touchdown pass. With the TD pass, Marino extended his streak to ten consecutive playoff games with one or more touchdown passes which is tied with the Raiders' Ken Stabler (1973-77) for the NFL's all-time record for consecutive post-season games with a touchdown pass. In addition, Duper's touchdown reception was his fifth post-season touchdown catch and broke the team's playoff record for career touchdown receptions. Duper was tied with wide receiver Paul Warfield (four TDs on 34 career playoff catches) and tight end Bruce Hardy (four TDs on 26 catches). Buffalo closed the scoring later in the period as Christie converted his fifth field goal of the game with a 38-yarder.

1994 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 27, CHIEFS 17
December 31, 1994

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 69,757 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game was billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lived up to the pregame hype. Marino completed 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana countered by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. The first half was an offensive shootout which was tied at 17-17 with neither team being forced to punt. Kansas City opened the scoring as Montana tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Derrick Walker. Miami answered the score on its first possession as Bernie Parmalee scored on a one-yard run. The Chiefs came right back to close the first quarter scoring at 14-7 as Montana threw a short pass to fullback Kimble Anders who turned the play into a 57-yard catch and run for the touchdown. Miami cut the score to 14-10 early in the second quarter as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 40-yard field goal. Kansas City upped their lead to 17-10 later in the quarter as Lin Elliott booted a 21-yard field goal. The Dolphins closed the first half scoring as Marino tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ronnie Williams. The scoring pass set an NFL record as it marked Marino's 11th consecutive post-season game with a touchdown toss. He moved past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak of playoff games with a touchdown pass in NFL history. The Dolphins dominated the second half and outscored the Chiefs by a 10-0 margin. Miami took their first lead of the ballgame at 24-17 on the first drive of the third quarter as Marino and Irving Fryar connected on a seven-yard touchdown pass. Miami increased its lead to 27-17 on a 40-yard field goal late in the third period. The Dolphins forced a pair of turnovers by the Chiefs in Miami territory to preserve the win. First, cornerback J.B. Brown intercepted a Montana aerial on the goal line to stop a drive and then safety Michael Stewart forced and recovered a fumble by Marcus Allen on the Dolphins' 34-yard line.

1994 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CHARGERS 22, DOLPHINS 21
January 8, 1995

Jack Murphy Stadium
San Diego, CA

Natrone Means rushed for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest before a crowd of 63,381 at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego had the first scoring threat of the game as they drove down to Miami's 26-yard line, but Miami's Marco Coleman forced a fumble by Means to stop the drive. Following the takeaway, the Dolphins opened the scoring as Dan Marino capped a nine-play, 79-yard drive with an eight-yard scoring pass to tight end Keith Jackson. The Chargers closed the score to 7-3 on their next possession as John Carney booted a 20-yard field goal. Prior to the field goal attempt, San Diego had a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' six-yard line but the Miami defense stiffened and held the Chargers out of the end zone. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-3 on their next possession as Marino and Jackson connected again in the end zone for a nine-yard touchdown pass. Jackson's two touchdown receptions in the contest tied Miami's all-time single-game playoff record, which was accomplished five previous times. San Diego answered the touchdown with another field goal as Carney connected on a 21-yard effort. Once again, San Diego had a first-and-goal on Miami's six-yard line and the Dolphin defense limited the Chargers to a field goal. Miami closed the first half scoring as Marino threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Mike Williams with just 27 seconds left in the first half to take a 21-6 lead. San Diego opened the third quarter with a long drive which was halted when Means was held for no gain on a fourth-and-one play from Miami's one-yard line and the Dolphins took possession of the ball. However, on Miami's first play following the goal line stand, Dolphins running back Bernie Parmalee was tackled in the end zone for a safety to bring the score to 21-8. Following a free kick by Miami's John Kidd, the Chargers got the ball on their own 46-yard line and drove for a 24-yard touchdown run by Means to cut the score to 21-15. Miami had the ball for just one play — the safety by Parmalee — in the entire third quarter. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Marino drove the team down to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with just eight seconds remaining was wide right.

1995 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

BILLS 37, DOLPHINS 22
December 30, 1995

Rich Stadium
Orchard Park, NY

The Buffalo Bills cruised out to a 24-0 halftime lead enroute to a 37-22 victory in an AFC First Round Playoff game in front of 73,103 fans at Rich Stadium. The contest proved to be the last game for Don Shula as head coach of the Dolphins. The Bills, led by running back Thurman Thomas' 158 yards, grounded out an AFC Playoff record 341 rushing yards, breaking the old mark of 318 set by the San Diego Chargers against Boston in 1963. Miami quarterback Dan Marino tied an NFL postseason record, with current teammate Bernie Kosar while he was a member of the Cleveland Browns in 1986, with 64 passing attempts and completed 33 (tied for second-highest in NFL postseason) of them for 422 yards (third-highest in NFL postseason). The two teams set a new NFL postseason record with 1,038 combined total net yards, breaking the old mark of 1,036 by the Dolphins and the San Diego Chargers in an overtime game in 1981. The Bills took an early 7-0 lead when Thomas scored on a one-yard touchdown run. Buffalo kicker Steve Christie put the Bills ahead 10-0 at the midway point of the first quarter with a 48-yard field goal. Buffalo needed just four plays to go 68 yards and took a 17-0 advantage when fullback Darick Holmes ran 21 yards for a touchdown with 9:54 left in the half. On the Dolphins' next possession, they drove to the Buffalo 40-yard line but Marino was hit by Bills defensive end Phil Hansen as he threw and the tipped ball was intercepted by linebacker Marlo Perry. It took Buffalo just 49 seconds to make the score 24-0 as Kelly connected with Steve Tasker on a 37-yard touchdown pass to cap a short three-play, 62-yard drive midway through the second quarter. The Bills added to their lead in the third quarter by driving 55 yards on ten plays and extended their lead to 27-0 when Christie booted a 23-yard field goal late in the third quarter. Miami got on the board when they took their next possession and drove 67 yards on nine plays and made the score 27-7 when Marino hit wide receiver O.J. McDuffie on a five-yard touchdown pass. The Bills increased their lead to 34-7 when they culminated a 61-yard drive with a 44-yard touchdown run by fullback Tim Tindale with 9:31 remaining in the game. The Dolphins cut the lead to 34-14 on their next possession as Marino connected with wide receiver Randal Hill on a 45-yard touchdown to close out a seven-play, 68-yard drive. The Bills answered with an eight-play, 44-yard drive that saw Christie kick a 42-yard field goal to make the score 37-14. Miami then took its next possession and marched 73 yards on eight plays and cut the lead to 37-22 when running back Terry Kirby ran one-yard for the score and a two-point conversion from Marino to McDuffie was good. The Dolphins then attempted an onside kick and safety Michael Stewart recovered at the Buffalo 49-yard line. However, Miami's last threat of the game was stopped when Marino was intercepted by Bills cornerback Ken Irvin at Buffalo's 13-yard line with 1:51 left in the game. McDuffie set a new club postseason record (tied with nine others for sixth-highest all-time in NFL postseason) with 11 receptions for 154 yards (a new Dolphin postseason record, surpassing Mark Duper's 148 yards vs. Pittsburgh in 1985).

1997 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

PATRIOTS 17, DOLPHINS 3
December 28, 1997

Foxboro Stadium
Foxboro, MA

The New England Patriots recorded their third win of the 1997 season over the Dolphins, and their fourth straight over Miami dating back to 1996, by holding Miami to just a field goal in their 17-3 triumph in a first-round playoff game at Foxboro Stadium. The loss was the Dolphins' third straight in the postseason. New England held Miami to 162 yards of total offense, the lowest total in the 32-game postseason history for the Dolphins, below a 176-yard performance against Washington in Super Bowl XVII. In addition, the three points scored by the Dolphins equalled the fewest points scored by the team in a playoff game with a 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI. Overall, New England forced three Miami turnovers, while the Patriots did not commit any miscues and 14 of New England's 17 points resulted from a Dolphins turnover. The Patriots sacked Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino four times on the day and Marino was held without a touchdown for the first time in 14 career playoff games. Marino's 13 straight playoff games with a touchdown is an NFL record. The Dolphins got to the Patriots' 39 late in the first quarter, but were stopped on third and fourth-and-one. The Patriots had an opportunity to take a 3-0 lead early in the second quarter, but Adam Vinatieri missed wide left on a 48-yard field goal attempt. Three plays later, Chris Slade intercepted a Dan Marino pass and returned it 22 yards to the Dolphins' 29. That led to a 24-yard touchdown pass from Drew Bledsoe to Troy Brown three plays afterward, on third-and-five, 4:33 into the second quarter. New England took over at its own 40 with 2:16 left in the first half and drove to the Dolphins' 30 before Vinatieri missed wide right on a 47-yard field goal try with 30 seconds on the clock. On the second play of the second half, Todd Collins picked off a Marino pass and brought it back 40 yards for a touchdown. The Patriots extended their lead to 17 points with 1:58 left in the third quarter when Vinatieri capped a 15-play, 67-yard drive with a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins got their only points of the game nine seconds into the fourth quarter, on an Olindo Mare 38-yard field goal. Miami had gained possession at the Patriots' 43 after a Corey Harris 40-yard kickoff return and a ten-yard tripping penalty on the Patriots. Corey Harris recovered the ensuing onside kick, and the Dolphins took over at their own 44. On the next play, however, Chris Canty stripped the ball from Marino and Chris Slade recovered at the Dolphins' 41. Miami got into New England territory on each of its last two possessions - getting as far as the 45 and 43 - but were stopped on fourth down on each occasion.

1998 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 24, BILLS 17
January 2, 1999

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins recorded their first playoff win since the 1994 season, snapping a three-game losing streak in the postseason with a 24-17 win in an AFC First-Round Playoff game over the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium. Doug Flutie connected with Eric Moulds for a 65-yard completion on the game's first play from scrimmage, but Terrell Buckley stripped the ball and Brock Marion returned the fumble 17 yards to the Dolphins' 29-yard line. That led to a 16-play, 57-yard drive which used 8:23 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 31-yard field goal. Miami made it a 6-0 game on Mare's second field goal of the afternoon, from 40 yards out, 4:24 into the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 66-yard drive that consumed 6:22 of the clock. Mare attempted an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that was recovered by the Bills' Dan Brandenburg. Three plays later, Buffalo took its first lead of the game when Thurman Thomas ran it in from one-yard out, two plays after Flutie and Moulds combined for a 37-yard completion to the Dolphins' five-yard line. Buffalo got to the Dolphins' six-yard line with 24 seconds remaining in the first half, but Marion picked off a Flutie pass and returned it 19 yards. A personal foul penalty on the Bills put the Dolphins at their own 35. Dan Marino then completed a 52-yard pass to Oronde Gadsden who then lateraled the ball to O.J. McDuffie, putting the Dolphins at the Bills' nine-yard line. Mare, however, hit the right upright on a 26-yard field goal attempt as time expired in the half. The Dolphins regained the lead at 13-7 on Karim Abdul-Jabbar's three-yard touchdown run with 2:32 left in the third quarter. Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 21 yards on the 52-yard drive, which was accomplished in 12 plays and saw the Dolphins connect on three third down conversions. Stanley Pritchett punched it in for the two-point conversion. Buffalo answered less than two minutes later with a 32-yard touchdown pass from Flutie to Moulds which tied the game at 14 with 48 seconds left in the third quarter. Miami got the ball back and embarked on a 17-play, 77-yard drive that ended with Mare's third field goal of the game, from 23 yards out, 5:15 into the fourth period. Four plays afterward, Jerry Wilson forced the ball loose from Andre Reed after a reception and Terrell Buckley recovered, returning it six yards to midfield. The Dolphins capitalized off that turnover when Marino connected with Lamar Thomas for an 11-yard scoring strike on third-and-seven with 3:32 remaining in the game, capping the eight play drive. The Bills took over at their own 20 and got to the Dolphins' 15-yard line before Steve Christie connected on a 33-yard field goal with 1:33 left in the game. Kurt Schulz recovered the ensuing onside kick for Buffalo, giving them possession at their own 31 with 1:30 to play. The first play of the drive was a 30-yard completion from Flutie to Moulds, putting the Bills at the Dolphins' 39-yard line. From there, Buffalo converted three consecutive third downs, giving them a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' five-yard line with 17 seconds remaining. Trace Armstrong then sacked Flutie, forcing the ball loose, which was recovered by Shane Burton to preserve the victory. Moulds finished the game with an NFL playoff record 240 receiving yards.

January 9, 1999

Mile High Stadium
Denver, CO

Miami failed to score a touchdown in its second straight road playoff game, as they dropped their seventh consecutive postseason road game overall, with a 38-3 loss to the Broncos at Mile High Stadium. After stopping the Dolphins on the first series of the game, the Broncos took over at their own eight and embarked on a 14-play, 92-yard drive that used 7:56 of the clock and ended with a Terrell Davis one-yard touchdown run with 5:55 left in the opening quarter. Denver took a two-touchdown advantage before the first quarter was over when Davis scored on a 20-yard run with 1:02 remaining in the opening period. The touchdown came three plays after Elway connected with Ed McCaffrey for a 33-yard completion to the Dolphins' 33-yard line. Miami answered with an 11-play, 76-yard drive that consumed 5:55 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 22-yard field goal, 4:53 into the second quarter. Davis broke loose for a 62-yard run to the Dolphins' 18-yard line on the first play of the second half, leading to a Jason Elam 32-yard field goal four plays afterward. Denver opened a 28-point advantage 1:37 into the fourth quarter when Elway combined with Rod Smith for a 28-yard touchdown strike. The Broncos finished off the scoring when Neil Smith recovered an Oronde Gadsden fumble following a reception and rumbled 79 yards for a touchdown.

1999 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 20, SEAHAWKS 17
January 9, 2000

Kingdome
Seattle, WA

In the last game ever played at the Kingdome, the Dolphins recorded their first road playoff win since 1972 with a 20-17 triumph over the Seattle Seahawks. The Seahawks' second possession of the game started at the Dolphins' 47 after Miami was forced to punt from its own four-yard line. From there, Seattle needed eight plays before Jon Kitna connected with Sean Dawkins for a nine-yard touchdown pass on third-and-three, with 6:18 to play in the first quarter. The score marked the second third-down conversion on the drive for the Seahawks. Kitna and Mike Pritchard hooked up for a pair of completions on the drive, totaling 29 yards. Brock Marion returned the ensuing kickoff 47 yards to midfield. The Dolphins then moved 37 yards in seven plays, leading to an Olindo Mare 32-yard field goal with 2:05 remaining in the opening quarter. The Seahawks re-gained their seven-point advantage with 45 seconds left in the first half on Todd Peterson's 50-yard field goal, which capped an eight-play, 49-yard drive that used 3:45 of the clock. The Dolphins took over at their own 40 on the opening possession of the second half after Peterson's kickoff went out of bounds. Led by Dan Marino, who completed all six of his passes, totaling 56 yards, Miami embarked on a ten-play, 60-yard drive that consumed 6:05 of the clock and ended with a one-yard touchdown pass from Marino to Oronde Gadsden on third-and-goal. The touchdown pass was the 31st for Marino in his playoff career, moving him past Terry Bradshaw into sole possession of second on the NFL's all-time postseason list. The key play on the march was a 27-yard completion from Marino to O.J. McDuffie on third-and-seven from the Seattle 46. Charlie Rogers took the ensuing kickoff and raced 85 yards for a touchdown to give Seattle the lead once again. The Dolphins pulled to within four points on Mare's 50-yard field goal with 2:22 to play in the third quarter, culminating a six-play, 32-yard drive in which Autry Denson rushed for 25 yards. The ensuing onside kick was recovered by Miami's Shawn Wooden, and the Dolphins took over at their own 42. Although they could not take advantage of that opportunity, Tom Hutton's punt that followed pinned Seattle at their own six. Down by four points with 9:09 to play, Miami gained possession at their own 15. On the third play of the series, they faced a third-and-17 from their own 8 when Marino hit Tony Martin for a 23-yard completion. From there, Miami marched the length of the field in just eight more plays, the final one being a two-yard TD run by J.J. Johnson with 4:48 to play in the game. Two plays prior to the score Marino connected with Gadsden for a 24-yard completion on third-and-10 from the Seahawks 29, giving them a first-and-goal from the 5. Seattle went three and out on their next series, and a Terrell Buckley interception with 23 seconds remaining ended any Seattle comeback hopes. The Dolphins dominated the second half of the game, as they gained 230 yards while holding Seattle to just 32 yards over the final 30 minutes of the game. Overall on the day, the Dolphins outgained Seattle by a 299-171 margin. They rushed for 108 yards while limiting the Seahawks to just 41 yards. The Dolphins held the ball for 34:48. Miami registered a club playoff record six sacks on the afternoon, including three by Trace Armstrong. Johnson finished the game with 86 yards rushing and a touchdown on 27 attempts. McDuffie and Martin each caught five passes.

The Jaguars took a 7-0 lead on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith on the first series of the game, 4:28 into the contest. 2000 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 23, COLTS 17 (OT) December 30, 2000	Pro Player Stadium Miami, FL
---------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------

The Miami Dolphins recorded the second-largest comeback win in team playoff history as they rallied from a 14-0 halftime deficit to earn a 23-17 overtime win against the Indianapolis Colts at Pro Player Stadium. The Dolphins faced a fourth-and-six from the Colts' 39 on their first possession of the game, but could not convert. The Colts took over and marched 47 yards in seven plays, en route to a Mike Vanderjagt 32-yard field goal. The Dolphins made it to the Colts' 33 late in the first quarter, but on third-and-14, Chad Cota intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass in the end zone. Vanderjagt lined up to attempt his second field goal in as many series, but the run by holder Hunter Smith on the fake was short of the first down. On the next play from scrimmage, Chad Bratzke intercepted a Fiedler pass and returned it four yards to the Dolphins' four. That led to a seven-play, 17-yard drive that culminated with a Vanderjagt 26-yard field goal. Fiedler suffered his third interception in as many series three plays later when Cota picked off his second pass of the day, giving the Colts the ball at the Dolphins' 18. Two plays later, Peyton Manning connected with Jerome Pathon for a 17-yard score. That was followed by a Manning to Ken Dilger pass for the two-point conversion. The Dolphins had a chance to put their first points on the board with 31 seconds left in the first half, but Olindo Mare missed wide right on a 38-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins opened the second half with an 11-play, 70-yard drive that ended with a two-yard scoring run by Lamar Smith, 6:51 into the half. Smith rushed for 42 yards on seven attempts on the march. The Dolphins cut the lead to four points 4:37 into the fourth quarter on a 38-yard field goal by Mare, which capped a nine-play, 53-yard drive. The Colts answered with a nine-play, 45-yard march which ended with a Vanderjagt 50-yard field goal. The Dolphins took over at their own 20 with 4:55 to play in the game, and marched the length of the field in 14 plays towards the game-tying score, a nine-yard touchdown pass from Fiedler to Jed Weaver on third-and-goal, with 34 seconds remaining in the game. Fiedler threw for 52 yards on the drive, as he completed six of 10 passes while also rushing three times for 15 yards. The Colts got into field goal position 5:44 into the overtime period, but Vanderjagt missed wide right on a 49-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins took over at their own 39, and on the third play from scrimmage, they got into Colts territory at the 48 on a six-yard completion from Fiedler to Jeff Ogden on third-and-three. Eight plays later, Smith gave the Dolphins their third straight victory in the First Round of the playoffs on a 17-yard touchdown run with 3:34 left in overtime. Smith's 40 attempts represented a new NFL playoff single-game best. His yardage figure was the second-most ever in an NFL postseason contest.

THE ORANGE BOWL

The 1986 season marked the end of an era for the Miami Dolphins as the team played its final season in the Orange Bowl. In 21 years, the Dolphins posted a 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record.

In the playoffs, Miami was 10-4 at the 75,206-seat Orange Bowl, giving the team a 120-43-3 (.736) mark in all games played there.

Miami played in the Orange Bowl from the team's initial season in 1966 through the 1986 campaign. From 1966 to 1969, the Orange Bowl had a grass playing field. The playing surface was changed to Poly-Turf in 1970, was replaced in 1972 and finally removed in March, 1976, so that Prescription Athletic Turf could be installed.

The Orange Bowl has been the site of many great sporting events, including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic, Olympic soccer matches and championship boxing matches.

DOLPHINS INDIVIDUAL PLAYOFF RECORDS

The following individual records relate solely to service with the Miami Dolphins. They include National Football League playoff and Super Bowl statistics only. Super Bowl games are marked with a "SB".

DOLPHINS IN THE HALL OF FAME

DON SHULA

Head Coach (1970-95)
Vice Chairman (1996-2001)

Born: 1/4/30

College: John Carroll '51

Player: 1951-57 • Ass't Coach: 1960-62

Head Coach: 1963-95 • Year Inducted: 1997

On July 26, 1997, Don Shula capped an illustrious career when he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, following his election into that shrine on January 25, 1997, his first year of eligibility. Shula's unanimous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of record-setting accomplishments.

Starting with the 1996 season, Shula has served as Vice-Chairman of the Miami Dolphins, having been named to that position on January 5, 1996. This year marks his 32nd season with the Dolphins, a tenure that started when he was named Head Coach of the club in 1970.

Shula's record as head coach of the Dolphins (1970-95) and before that as head coach of the Baltimore Colts (1963-69) is unmatched in National Football League history. In 1995 he concluded his 33rd season as an NFL head coach and his 26th season as head coach of the Dolphins. He owns a career record of 347-173-6 (.665), including a regular season mark of 328-156-6 (.676), and is the winningest coach in NFL history. On November 14, 1993 in Philadelphia, when the Dolphins defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 19-14, Shula won his 325th career game, moving him past the immortal George Halas (324-151-31) and setting an NFL record for most career victories, a mark once thought to be unreachable. Shula's 328 regular season wins also is an NFL record, surpassing Halas' former NFL mark of 318 regular season victories. Shula and Halas are the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more career games, as Shula recorded his 300th career win on September 22, 1991, with a 16-13 triumph over Green Bay in just his 29th year as an NFL head coach, as compared to 36 seasons for Halas to accomplish that feat.

In addition, Shula won Super Bowl titles in 1972 and 1973, one of only five coaches in NFL history to win consecutive Super Bowls. His 1972 team went 17-0, recording the only undefeated season in NFL annals. He has appeared in more Super Bowls (six) than any other coach, and is one of only two coaches (along with Buffalo's Marv Levy) to reach the Super Bowl three straight seasons (1971-73). He also advanced to the Super Bowl with the Dolphins in 1982 and 1984, as well as in 1968 as head coach of the Colts.

A remarkable 20 times in 33 seasons, Shula's teams reached the playoffs. His teams won at least ten games 21 times in those 33 years, and he suffered only two losing seasons (1976, 1988) in that span. He averaged more than ten wins per season in his career (347 wins in 33 years as a head coach), and he was the youngest coach to win 100, 200 and 300 games each.

During Shula's tenure with the Dolphins, from the time he replaced George Wilson on February 18, 1970 to become the franchise's second-ever head coach through his final season in 1995, his winning percentage of .658 (257-133-2) during that time was the best record in all of professional sports. The Dolphins either won or shared first place in the AFC East 15 times in the 26 years under Shula, and reached the playoffs 16 times. His ultimate achievement was the NFL's only unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972, capped by a 14-7 win over the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. He won a second consecutive Super Bowl title in 1973, defeating the Minnesota Vikings 24-7 in Super Bowl VIII, and compiled an overall record of 32-2 in those back-to-back seasons, a two-year mark that has yet to be surpassed.

Before joining the Dolphins, Shula spent seven years (1963-69) as head coach of the Baltimore Colts. In that span he compiled a record of 73-26-4 (.728) and advanced to the playoffs four times, including two appearances in the NFL Championship Game, in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, respectively. He was the youngest head coach (33 years old) in the history of the NFL when he was named the Colts' head coach in 1963.

Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach in Baltimore after serving three years (1960-62) as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions, with the team going 26-13-1 in that period. Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959) before joining the Lions.

Shula broke into the NFL as the lone rookie on Coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951. He was involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons. In college, he was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950 he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula also contributed to the growth of the NFL off the field by serving from 1975 through 1995 (including the last two years in that span as co-chairman along with George Young of the New York Giants) on the league's influential Competition Committee, which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules as well as regulations designed to improve the safety of playing conditions.

In addition to his own election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Shula was further honored by being selected to present five other members for induction into the Hall (Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer, Larry Little, and Dwight Stephenson), including two (Csonka and Langer) in the same day.

Along with his football responsibilities, Shula always has given considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to many area charities. The Don Shula Foundation, formed primarily to assist breast cancer research, was established as a tribute to his late wife, Dorothy. Shula also has been active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, the United Way, and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll, Shula helps fund a $1 million chair in the University's Department of Philosophy. On May 17, 1994, John Carroll University showed its appreciation for Shula's support of the school by naming its athletic complex the Don Shula Sports Center. Shula also has received honorary doctorate degrees from John Carroll, St. Thomas University, the University of Miami, and Florida Atlantic University.

Because of his success on the football field and his long-time civic and charitable service, Shula has received countless prestigious awards recognizing his contributions, including the 1993 Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year Award and the 1994 Horatio Alger Award. In addition, along with Ken Blanchard, in 1995 Shula co-authored "Everyone's A Coach," a highly acclaimed book that outlines the application of their managerial philosophies for business and personal success. Shula personifies those business principles himself, serving as an equity partner in two highly successful enterprises, Don Shula's Hotel and Golf Club along with Don Shula's Steakhouse, Inc.

Shula's oldest son Dave, 42, and his wife Leslie have three sons, Danny, Christopher, and Matthew. David served as the Head Coach of the Cincinnati Bengals from 1992-96, and when Don Shula's Dolphins played Dave Shula's Bengals on October 2, 1994 in Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium, it marked the first time ever in professional sports that a father and son faced each other as head coaches. Dave currently is President of Don Shula Steakhouse, Inc.

Shula's other son Mike, 36, rejoined the Dolphins in 2000 after serving the four previous seasons as the offensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers; he also spent the 1991-92 seasons as a coaches' assistant under his father in Miami. Mike and his wife, Shari, have one daughter, Samantha.

Mike and Dave Shula presented their father for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1997, becoming the first pair ever to present a Hall of Famer for induction.

Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, has five children, Alex, Lindsey, Tyler, Calvin, and Carly, and is married to Steve Cohen. Another daughter, Sharon, currently serves as the Director of Development of the Don Shula Foundation and resides in New York. Youngest daughter Annie lives and works in Broward County.

Shula and his wife, Mary Anne, reside in Miami and continue to be very active in charitable and community affairs. They were married on October 16, 1993, and their family together now includes eight children and 12 grandchildren.

SHULA'S MILESTONES

Don Shula passed the immortal George Halas to become the winningest coach in NFL history when he registered victory number 325 in Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia on November 14, 1993. Shula concluded coaching with a career record of 347-173-6 (.665). On December 25, 1994, in Miami's 27-20 win over Detroit, Shula won the 319th regular season game of his career and broke the NFL record for most regular season coaching wins by Halas (318 wins). Shula owned a 328-156-6 (.676) regular season record. In 1991, Shula joined Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches with 300 or more career wins. Shula accomplished his milestone 300th career win with a 16-13 triumph over the Green Bay Packers on September 22, 1991. Shula won the 300th regular-season game of his coaching career with a 16-13 overtime win at New England on December 27, 1992.

Shula added another historic career milestone in Miami's 30-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on September 16, 1990, as he recorded his 200th regular season victory since joining the Dolphins in 1970. Shula joined Hall of Fame coaches Curley Lambeau (Green Bay), George Halas (Chicago) and Tom Landry (Dallas) as the only NFL coaches to earn 200 or more regular season wins with one NFL club.

NICK BUONICONTI

Linebacker

Born: 12/15/40

College: Notre Dame '62

NFL: 1962-76

Dolphins: 1969-76

Year Inducted: 2001

Nick Buoniconti, the driving force of the Dolphins' famed "No-Name Defense," inspired his teammates with his outstanding play and fiery leadership. During his seven years with the Dolphins the team advanced to three straight Super Bowls (1971-73) and won twice (1972, 1973), with one of those wins coming after their unparalleled undefeated season in 1972. Buoniconti was only 5-11 and 220 pounds and was considered to be too small to play middle linebacker. However, as many coaches noted, he always "played bigger than his size" during a stellar 14-year career with the Dolphins and the Boston Patriots.

The first member of the Dolphins defense to be elected to the Hall of Fame, Buoniconti joined the team in 1969 after playing seven seasons with the Patriots. During his tenure with the Dolphins, he was named the team's Most Valuable Player three times (1969, 1970, 1973) and was named to the AFL All-Star game in 1969 and was selected to two Pro Bowls (1973, 1974) following the merger of the two leagues. In 1990, he was voted as a linebacker on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 18, 1991, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Pro Player Stadium.

Before joining the Dolphins, Buoniconti helped the Patriots capture the 1963 AFL Eastern Division title, and he played in five AFL All-Star games. Overall in his 14-year career, he played in 183 games and recorded 32 career interceptions. He was named to the All-Time AFL team in 1970, and overall was named a first team All-AFL/AFC choice eight times.

A native of Springfield, Massachusetts, Buoniconti had an outstanding collegiate career at Notre Dame. Following his retirement from the Dolphins, he and his son, Marc, were the driving forces behind the establishment of the Miami Project to Cure Paralysis, one of the world's leading research and treatment centers for spinal cord injuries.

Buoniconti was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2001 after being named for the first time that year as a nominee from the pre-1976 era by the Hall's Seniors Committee.

Larry Csonka ranks as the Dolphins' all-time leading rusher with 1,506 carries for 6,737 yards (4.5 average) and 53 TDs. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. Csonka shined in those three Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. Originally drafted in the first round out of Syracuse in 1968, he was named the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards and two touchdowns as the Dolphins steamrolled the Minnesota Vikings, 24-7, for their second straight NFL title. Called a "modern-day Bronko Nagurski" by Dolphin coach Don Shula, "Zonk" also played three seasons with the N.Y. Giants (1976-78) and one year with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975). His career rushing totals in the NFL, which place him 22nd on the league's all-time rushing list, are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 average) and 64 TDs. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his second year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted the fullback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team and was named as a running back on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary all-time team. He was unquestionably the "thinking man's quarterback." Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphin offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL's exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first to be retired May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet. In 1990, he was also voted the quarterback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Pro Player Stadium.

He had a .698 winning percentage (91-39-1) under Coach Don Shula. "Cornerstone of the franchise," Dolphin founder Joe Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made six appearances in the Pro Bowl and was voted the team's Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

After becoming eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame in 1985, Griese was named as a finalist all five years before being elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990.

"He's probably the most unselfish guy I've ever been around," Shula said. "He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That's just his makeup."

Jim Langer was the anchor of the Miami offensive line during the Dolphins' championship years of the 1970s. Coming out of South Dakota State in 1970, he was signed as a free agent by Cleveland but was released on the final cut. Langer was picked up on waivers by the Dolphins and, after spending most of the year on the taxi squad, played in the final five games of 1970, mainly on special teams. After serving as a backup at center the following season, in 1972 he won the starting job, which he would hold until sidelined with a knee injury in 1979. A consensus All-Pro from 1973-77, Langer was a six-time Pro Bowl selection (five times as a starter). He played in a club-high 128 straight games during his career and also had a team-record 109 consecutive starts (a record since broken by Richmond Webb in 1997). Voted the team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media in 1975, Langer also holds the distinction of having played every offensive down in the Dolphins' perfect 1972 season. Wanting to spend the final years of his career near his Royalton, Minn., home, at his own request Langer was traded to the Minnesota Vikings in 1980, where he played for two seasons (1980-81). He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In addition, on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Pro Player Stadium.

NFL: 1967-80

Dolphins: 1969-80

Year Inducted: 1993

A rumbling giant in the Dolphin trenches for 12 seasons, Larry Little's very presence in leading a sweep was an intimidating force in a Miami running attack which led the NFL during the 1970s at 2,372 yards per season. Coming out of Bethune-Cookman in 1967, Little entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the San Diego Chargers for a $750 bonus. He was traded to the Dolphins on July 2, 1969, in exchange for Miami cornerback Mack Lamb, a former high school teammate. After having started just four games during his two seasons with the Chargers, Little emerged with the Dolphins and played in 158 regular season games with 152 starting assignments. He also started 12 playoff games for Miami and was a key ingredient of the Dolphins' back-to-back Super Bowl championship teams of 1972 and '73. Little earned All-Pro honors six times (1971-75 and 1977) and was a Pro Bowl selection on four occasions (1971-74). He was the first player in league history to be named as AFC Offensive Lineman of the Year three straight seasons (1970-72) by the NFL Players' Association. Little, who anchored the offensive line which helped set a then-NFL record with 2,960 rushing yards during the Dolphins' "perfect season" in 1972, was named by the National 1,000-Yard Club as the league's Outstanding Blocker for the '72 campaign. A native Floridian, Little was the first Dolphin player inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame, on March 6, 1978. In 1990, he was voted as a guard on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team. Little was elected into the Hall of Fame in his eighth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on three occasions. On December 13, 1993, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Pro Player Stadium.

Dwight Stephenson spent his entire career with the Dolphins, and was considered by many to be the "best at his position ever" in the NFL. He was selected to five straight Pro Bowls (1983-87), and earned starting honors in four of those contests (1983-86). His four Pro Bowl starts is tied for the third-most in team history. Stephenson anchored an offensive line which allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL each of his seasons as a starter and enabled Miami quarterback Dan Marino to set numerous passing records. His playing career ended prematurely after suffering torn anterior cruciate and lateral collateral ligaments in his left knee against the New York Jets on December 7, 1987, when he was hit unexpectedly by Marty Lyons on a New York fumble return. Stephenson's greatest honor during his playing days came in 1985 when he was selected as the Miller Lite/NFL Man of the Year for his work in charity and community projects, the first Dolphin to win that award. Stephenson also served as an Assistant Offensive Line Coach on Don Shula's Dolphin staff in 1992. Before joining the Dolphins as a second round draft choice in 1980, he had an outstanding college career at Alabama, where he was called "the greatest center I have ever coached" by the late Paul "Bear" Bryant. He was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his sixth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on five occasions. In 1990, he also was voted as the center on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on December 12, 1994, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Pro Player Stadium.

Paul Warfield sandwiched two stints with the Cleveland Browns around a five-year career with the Dolphins. After spending his first six seasons in the NFL with the Browns (1964-69), Warfield was acquired by Miami in January of 1970 in exchange for a first-round pick in the upcoming draft. In his five seasons with the Dolphins, Warfield had 156 receptions for 3,355 yards (21.5 average) and 33 TDs — good enough to place him 15th on the team's all-time receiving list. A member of both the '72 and '73 Super Bowl championship teams, he was selected to play in the Pro Bowl all five years he was with the Dolphins (once as a starter), in addition to being named to the AFC squad twice with the Browns. Warfield, one of two Dolphins (along with Mark Ingram) in the team's history to score four touchdowns in one game, also played one season with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975) before finishing his career with Cleveland (1976-77). His career receiving totals in the NFL are: 427 receptions for 8,565 yards (20.1 average) and 85 TDs. His 85 touchdown catches is tied for the eighth highest career total in NFL history. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted as a wide receiver on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Pro Player Stadium.

When Marino passed the 60,000-yard mark, that is the equivalent to passing more than 34 miles . . . That is more than the following (courtesy USA Today):

- 163 trips up and down the Washington Monument (34.2 miles)
- 600 football fields from goal line to goal line (34.1 miles)
- The length of the English Channel Tunnel (31 miles)
- Five Mount Everests (27.5 miles)
- Distance between Miami and Ft. Lauderdale (27 miles)
- A marathon (26.2 miles)
- The ozone layer (25 miles)

Marino reached the 50,000, 40,000 and 30,000 yards passing plateaus faster than any quarterback in NFL history:

Marino is the only quarterback in NFL history to have six 4,000-yard seasons (1984-86, 1988, 1992, 1994) . . . Warren Moon (four, 1990-91, 1994-95), Dan Fouts (three, 1979-81), Brett Favre (three, 1995, 1998-99), Drew Bledsoe (two, 1994, 1996), Steve Young (two, 1993, 1998), and Peyton Manning (two, 1999-2000) are the only other QBs to have multiple 4,000-yard seasons . . . Along with Fouts, he is the only other QB to pass for 4,000 yards in three straight seasons (1984-86) . . . Marino passed for 3,000 or more yards 13 times (1984-92, 1994-95, 1997-98) in his 17 seasons in the NFL . . . When he went over the 3,000-yard passing mark on Dec. 21, 1998 vs. Denver, it marked the 13th time he passed for 3,000 or more yards, breaking his tie with John Elway and re-setting the NFL record for most 3,000 yard seasons . . . Marino originally set the record for most 3,000 yard seasons in 1991, his eighth year of passing for 3,000 or more yards before Elway tied that record in 1996 . . . Before setting that NFL record, Marino had been tied with Joe Montana (1981, 1983-85, 1987, 1989-90) for the previous record of seven 3,000-yard seasons . . . Marino extended that mark to 11 seasons before being tied by Elway in 1996, and Marino now holds the NFL record alone by extending that mark to 13 seasons:

In addition, Marino's nine consecutive 3,000-yard seasons (1984-92) is tied for the NFL record for most consecutive 3,000 yard seasons along with Brett Favre (1992-2000) . . . Marino led the NFL in passing yards five times . . . during a season, having accomplished that feat in 1984-86, 1988, and 1992 . . . Marino tied the NFL record for most seasons leading the league in passing yardage (five) with Sonny Jurgensen (1961-62, 1966-67, 1969) . . . Marino had 13 career 400-yard games (15, including playoffs) and the Dolphins were 8-5 in those 13 games (9-6 overall, including the playoffs) . . . Marino had 63 career regular season 300-yard games (67, including playoffs), and the Dolphins were 37-26 in those 63 300-yard games (38-29 overall, including playoffs) . . . Marino's 63 career 300-yard passing games extended his own NFL record for most career 300-yard passing games . . . He broke Dan Fouts' former NFL record of 51 career 300-yard games on Dec. 3, 1995 vs. Atlanta when Marino had 343 yards passing, the 52nd regular season game of 300 or more yards passing in his career . . . Marino tied Fouts' record of 51 regular season career 300-yard games when he had 333 yards passing on Nov. 12, 1995 vs. New England . . . Marino owns the top 11 and 42 of the top 50 passing yardage games in Dolphins history as well as 67 of the 79 300-yard passing games in club history . . .

TOUCHDOWN PASSES: Marino's first touchdown pass on Nov. 26, 1995 at Indianapolis, a six-yard TD pass to Keith Byars with 13:54 elapsed in the second quarter, was Marino's 343rd TD pass of his career, breaking Fran Tarkenton's former NFL record of most career touchdown passes (342), making Marino the league's all-time leader in career TD passes . . . Marino tied Tarkenton's record vs. San Francisco on November 20, 1995, with a four-yard TD pass to O.J. McDuffie in the third quarter . . . On Nov. 29th, 1998 vs. New Orleans, Marino's seven-yard touchdown pass to O.J. McDuffie was the 400th TD pass of his career, becoming the first quarterback in NFL history to throw for 400 touchdown passes . . . Marino recorded 420 career touchdown passes:

DOLPHIN FACT

Running back Bernie Parmalee holds the team record for rushing yardage in consecutive games. Parmalee gained 150 yards on 30 carries against the L.A. Raiders on October 16, 1994, and followed that performance with a 123-yard effort on 25 carries at New England on October 30. His 273 rushing yards in those two games set a team record for rushing yards in consecutive games, surpassing the previous best of 258 yards rushing by Mercury Morris accomplished with 197 yards against New England on September 30, 1973, and 61 yards at the New York Jets on October 7, 1973.

DOLPHIN FACT

In home openers, Miami is 28-6-1 (.814). In road openers, the Dolphins are 19-15-1 (.557).

In addition, the Dolphins own a 27-4 (.871) record in home openers since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, which is the best of any NFL club over that time span, ahead of the Raiders (25-5-1, .823).

• For the second straight season in 2000, Miami split the regular season series with Indianapolis, with each team again recording a win on the road. The 2000 season marked the 13th time in the series' 31-year history that the season series produced a split, but only the fifth occasion that the road teams were the victors (1980, 1987, 1992, 1999, 2000).

• The Dolphins and Colts squared off in the playoffs last season for the second time in series history. The first postseason contest between these teams was in the AFC Championship Game on January 2, 1972 as Miami shut out the then Baltimore Colts, 21-0, to advance to Super Bowl VI.

• With a 17-14 win at the RCA Dome on November 26 of last year, the Dolphins captured their third consecutive victory at Indianapolis in as many seasons. This is Miami's longest road winning streak in this series since the team won four straight games at Indianapolis from 1990-93. Overall, the Dolphins are 19-12 on the road versus the Colts, including an 11-6 mark in Indianapolis. The Dolphins are 22-9 against the Colts during the regular season in Miami and 8-6 at Pro Player Stadium.

• The Dolphins are 22-21 all-time in domed stadiums, including a 2-1 mark in 2000. Overall, they are 11-6 against Indianapolis (RCA Dome), 6-6 against Houston (Astrodome), 2-2 against Detroit (Silverdome), 1-3 against New Orleans (Superdome), 1-1 against Seattle (Kingdome), 0-1 against Atlanta (Georgia Dome), 0-2 against Minnesota (Metrodome) and 1-0 against St. Louis (Trans World Dome).

• Miami wideout Oronde Gadsden has had some of his most productive games against the Colts. In Gadsden's three NFL seasons, he has faced Indianapolis on six occasions, hauling in 16 passes for 340 yards (21.3 avg.) and four touchdowns, including the winning TD in the final seconds of the last two games at the RCA Dome. In fact, Gadsden's first NFL reception was a 44-yard touchdown strike from Dan Marino on September 6, 1998 at the RCA Dome.

- The Jets swept the series for the third consecutive season in 2000, taking the lead in the all-time regular season series by a 35-34-1 margin. Miami is 1-0 versus the Jets in the postseason.
- The three straight season series sweeps over the Dolphins from 1998 to 2000 represents a first for the Jets against Miami since they accomplished the feat from 1978 to 1980.
- With the Jets winning both games in 2000, this regular season series has resulted in a sweep in nine out of the last eleven years. In addition to last season, New York captured the series in 1991, 1993, 1998, 1999 and 2000. Miami swept both regular season games in 1990, 1994, 1996 and 1997. The Dolphins and Jets split the series in 1992 and 1995, with the home team winning each game.
- The Jets have won the last six meetings with the Dolphins capturing the four previous games. The Jets hold a 20-15 advantage in games played in New York, including an 11-6 mark at Giants Stadium. The Dolphins are 19-15-1 in regular season play and 1-0 in the postseason against the Jets in Miami. They are 7-7 versus the Jets at Pro Player Stadium with wins in five of the last nine matchups.
- The Jets' October 23 overtime win last season marked the fifth time in the history of this series that the teams were required to play the extra period. The Dolphins are 0-4-1 when having to face the Jets in overtime.

- Oakland leads the all-time regular season series 15-8-1. Miami, however, has won five of the last six meetings, including three straight. The Raiders also hold a 3-1 edge in playoff competition after handing the Dolphins a 27-0 loss in the divisional round of last year's postseason.

The last time an Oakland Raiders team played in Miami came on November 15, 1981 as the Raiders handed the Dolphins a 33-17 defeat. The Dolphins are 4-7-1 in home games in this series and 4-8 all-time when facing the Raiders on the road.

- The all-time series between these teams is even at four games apiece. Miami won the first four meetings, however San Francisco has captured the last four contests, including a 38-16 triumph in Super Bowl XIX on January 20, 1985 at Stanford Stadium.

- The Dolphins' last win in this series came on November 6, 1983 at San Francisco. Miami was led in the game by the club's first-round draft choice that season, quarterback Dan Marino, who passed for 194 yards and two touchdowns with no interceptions en route to the Dolphins 20-17 victory.

- Miami and San Francisco have not met since November 20, 1995. This is currently the longest the Dolphins have gone without playing another NFL team during regular season play, with the exception of the Cleveland Browns, whom Miami last faced on October 10, 1993. Cleveland did not play any games from 1996-99.

- The Dolphins hold a 2-1 regular season record in games played at San Francisco and are 2-2 when facing the 49ers at home.

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

WQAM

The 2001 Miami Dolphins' season marks the fifth with WQAM (560 AM) serving as the flagship station for the Dolphins' radio network. This year the network has over 20 stations covering more than 70 markets in Florida.

WQAM is known for its outstanding sports programming, and is one of the leading sports and entertainment radio stations in the country. In addition to the Dolphins games, WQAM also broadcasts the games of the Florida Marlins, the Florida Panthers, and the University of Miami football, basketball and baseball. WQAM is the home of the popular "First Team" morning show of Jeff DeForrest, ex-Dolphin Joe Rose, and Steve Goldstein. Miami's leading talk show "The Neil Rogers Show" is heard mid-days. Hank Goldberg handles the afternoon and hosts the weekly "Dave Wannstedt Show" with Dolphins Head Coach Dave Wannstedt. Former Dolphins Jim Mandich and Kim Bokamper also host talk shows. WQAM carries extensive Dolphins programming on game-days, beginning with a four-hour pre-game show and culminating with a two-hour post-game wrapup. WQAM also broadcasts live from the team's training camp and carries comprehensive Dolphins updates during the season.

Handling the play-by-play and entering his eighth season as "The Voice of the Dolphins" is Bill Zimpfer. Zimpfer, 45, joined the Dolphin broadcasts in 1994, after six years (1988-93) as play-by-play announcer for the Penn State football network. During the football off-season, Zimpfer also serves as morning sports anchor for WOGL-FM and WPHT-AM in Philadelphia. He resides with his wife and family in East Greenville, Pa.

Joining Zimpfer in the booth is analyst and ex-Dolphins favorite Jim Mandich. Mandich, in his tenth year as the color commentator on Dolphin game broadcasts, was a member of the Dolphins' 1972 club that was the NFL's only undefeated team. In his eight seasons as a Dolphins tight end (1970-77), Mandich caught 121 passes for 1,406 yards (11.6 yards per catch) with 23 touchdowns and ranks 24th in Dolphins team history in receiving and is tied for 19th in club annals in scoring with 138 points.

PRESEASON TELEVISION

Two of the five Dolphins preseason games in 2001 will be telecast on a national basis, while the other three games will be broadcast on WFOR-TV (Channel 4) in Miami-Ft. Lauderdale and WTVX (Channel 34) in West Palm Beach.

The Dolphins' first preseason game, the Hall of Fame game from Fawcett Stadium in Canton, Ohio, on Monday, August 6th against the St. Louis Rams, will be televised nationally on ABC-TV at 8:00 pm (ET). The Dolphins will play in front of a national audience for the second consecutive preseason game when they travel to Tampa Bay to battle the Buccaneers on Monday, August 13, starting at 8:00 p.m. (ET) in a game that will be carried nationally by ESPN.

The remaining three preseason games will be televised by WFOR-TV and WTVX. The first of those three games will be on Saturday, August 18 when they host the San Diego Chargers, starting at 7:00 p.m (ET) at Pro Player Stadium. If the game is sold out 72 hours prior to kickoff, it will be shown live in the Miami-Ft. Lauderdale and West Palm Beach areas; otherwise it will be shown on a delayed basis. The Dolphins then meet the Green Bay Packers on Saturday, August 25 at Lambeau Field in Green Bay, starting at 8:00 p.m. (ET) in a game that will be televised live on WFOR and WTVX. Miami's preseason finale will be on Friday, August 31 when the Dolphins host the Minnesota Vikings at 7:00 p.m. (ET). Again, if the game is sold out 72 hours prior to kickoff, it would be shown live on WFOR-TV and WTVX; otherwise it would be shown on a delayed basis.

For the eighth season, ABC Sports broadcaster Brad Nessler will be a part of the Dolphin pre-season broadcast team, handling the play-by-play of the San Diego Charger game. He is one of the most respected announcers in the country, broadcasting the top college football games on ABC, including the Bowl Championship Series on ABC, and has handled a variety of other events during his career for ABC, ESPN, and CBS. Joining Nessler for the Charger game as a color analyst will be former Dolphin great and Pro Football Hall of Famer Bob Griese, a member of ABC's lead broadcast team for college football, where he frequently teamed with Nessler. Craig Bolerjack will handle the play-by-play for the final two games on WFOR. He is a member of CBS Sports' NFL broadcast team and also has handled college football and basketball for that network as well as for ESPN. Nat Moore, the Dolphins' third all-time leading receiver and one of the most popular players in club history, again will handle color commentary for all three preseason games on WFOR.
